September 30, 2018-26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's first reading gives us a good understanding of how the Holy Spirit works. Moses has been leading the people of Israel away from Egypt on their journey through the desert. It is a challenging task as we know, considering how often the people complained and grumbled. But Moses wisely asked God to share the burden of leadership with others. God sends the Spirit upon a number of leaders in order that the people might be served with their many needs.

Our baptism is an invitation to become a leader. The grace we receive enables us to share in the Mission of Jesus and each one of us has a part to play. We are called to be prophets: to speak up for truth and justice, to proclaim God's saving love and to care for those in need. Let us pray for the grace to humbly embrace this call to leadership. The world needs them!

Many thanks to our music ministry who faithfully lead us in song each week. We met this past week to plan out the liturgies of the coming year. We are grateful for their dedication.

There is still opportunity to get involved in one of our ministries in the parish. The 5 pm mass is especially in need of people willing to share their gifts with our community.

October is Mission month and the month of the Rosary. Pray daily for all missionaries and their work of sharing Christ with the world.
