Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
From the desk of Fr. Rob.....

In our second reading this weekend, St. Paul offers us some great advice: “Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.” From our earliest days, we are all taught that love must be our way of life. To be a disciple means that we strive each day to follow the example of Jesus. St. Paul wanted to encourage the community of early Christians by reminding them that love was to be the hallmark of their community life. When relationships experience conflict or there are misunderstandings etc. love is always the first step. This past month has been very busy pastorally as we have celebrated with all the children their first communion as well as trying to catch up on many baptisms. We have also celebrated a number of funerals. May our deceased rest in peace.

We pray this week for all the students and parents as well as the educators and support staffs of our schools, colleges and universities as school re-opens. It will be a few days of worry and anxiety so we pray that all will be kept safe and surrounded by the Lord's gentle peace.

Looking ahead, our roofing project at St. John Vianney will begin on Monday, September 21st. Throughout the construction period (2-3 weeks they are telling me), the church will be closed during the week to allow them to get the work done. All weekday masses including funerals will be moved to Our Lady of the Atonement so that the work can proceed unobstructed and all are kept safe and away from a work zone.

A Prayer for Labor Day

Lord on this Labor Day,
we thank You for the blessing of work.
We ask for strength to complete each day.
We ask for rest when we are weary.
We ask Your guidance for everyone seeking employment, and we ask that You be with those whose faces we might never see but who work tirelessly each day for the good of us all.
Amen.
