MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Music for the Liturgy

9:30 am Sung English Mass

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things in earth, and things under the earth, for that the Lord became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross: wherefore Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Hear my prayer, O Lord: and let my cry come unto thee.

Ordinary: PBC 64-67 – Mass VIII, “de Angelis”

Psalm 25: Lord, be mindful of your mercy.

Alleluia: My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready: I will sing to thee and give praise to thee, my glory.

Creed: PBC 119 – Credo III

Offertory: By the waters of Babylon we sat down, and wept: when we remembered thee, O Sion.

Motet: Dulcis Christe (Michelangelo Grancini)

Communion: Remember thy word unto thy servant, O Lord, wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust: the same is my comfort in my affliction.

Motet: Here, O my Lord (Barry Rose)

Credo: I

Offertory: Super flumina Babylonis

I am horribly afraid for the ungodly that forsake your law; but my songs will be always of your judgments in the place of my pilgrimage. I remembered your name in the night, O Lord, and have kept your law: this was done to me because I kept your commandments. (Psalm 119: 49-56)

Recessional: “At the name of Jesus” (in booklets)

Benediction Motet: Adoro te devote (Cecilia McDowall)

Translation: I devoutly adore you, O hidden Deity, truly hidden beneath these appearances; my whole heart submits to you, and in contemplating you, surrenders itself completely. Sight, touch, taste are all deceived in their judgment of you, but hearing suffices firmly to believe; I believe all that the Son of God has spoken, for nothing is truer than this word of truth. Jesus, whom now I see hidden, I ask you to fulfill what I so desire: that, seeing your face unveiled, I may have the happiness of beholding your glory. Amen. (St Thomas Aquinas)

Organ: Praeludium in E minor (Nikolaus Bruhns)

Pastor's Corner

Today, September 27, we welcome His Excellency, Bishop Robert "Bob" Kasun CSB, to the church of the Holy Family! Bishop Kasun has long experience as a pastor. Before being named auxiliary bishop of Toronto, he was the pastor of four parishes in Alberta.

Bishop Kasun has been very fatherly towards me ever since Cardinal Leo appointed me pastor. He has been gracious over the years in celebrating confirmation Masses at both Holy Family and St. Vincent de Paul. Please pray for him as he just celebrated his 10th anniversary of ordination as a bishop. Today is a day of joy for our parish as we welcome a bishop for the blessing of a new pastor at the 9:30am Mass. May we welcome him and speak to him for what he truly is, a successor of the Apostles!

One time, last year, Bishop Kasun, by chance, told me that the church where he was first pastor still holds a special place in his heart. Those words have been on my mind as I prepared to be installed as a first-time pastor. The situation for Oratorian pastors is fairly unique in the Church. We live at one church for our whole life. We work for years in the same parish. Holy Family and St. Vincent de Paul, therefore, are not new churches to Oratorian priests who become pastors. Being stable in one area is a profound blessing.

But there are distinct responsibilities that the pastor of a parish has. There are graces that this installation brings to the pastor for the carrying out of his duties as shepherd of Christ's flock gathered in this church. And I am profoundly grateful to God and Bishop Kasun for allowing this installation to occur on the anniversary of St. Vincent de Paul's feast day.

For the past three years, I have worked as the associate pastor at St. Vincent de Paul church. While I was only an associate pastor, some part of Bishop Kasun's sentiments are my own with regard to our sister parish. Nothing can take from me the richness of the past three years in that historic church with so many faithful people. Nothing can remove from my heart the love I have for teachers and students of St. Vincent de Paul school.

I pray that God will sustain me in this new role. I pray that God will give me love for this parish without removing any love for the flock at St. Vincent de Paul. This day shows the connection between our two parishes. Both parishes are served by the same religious family, the Oratory of St. Philip Neri. May the burning heart of St. Philip be in the hearts of all our priests. Please "pray also for me" (Ephesians 6:19).

-Fr Michael
