MARRIAGES:

Couples planning to be married must contact a priest well in advance of the wedding date. They must also receive personal preparation for entering marriage.

If either party has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted.

It should be noted that Catholics, in order to marry validly, must marry before the parish priest or his delegate and two witnesses. A civil marriage or a marriage before a non-Catholic minister is not a valid marriage. Couples in such "marriages" should contact a priest to have the situation rectified.

VOCATION DISCERNMENT

It's a simple concept: love God with your whole being and put that love into practice. How is God calling you to love? Have you considered the way of loving called 'priesthood', 'diaconate' or 'religious life'? If He is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, please talk to one of the Fathers of the Oratory or call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto, at 416-968-0997 or email: vocations@archtoronto.org.

Visit the vocations website at www.vocationstoronto.ca.

Her legacy is an indelible testament to the truth of God's presence and His grace.

ZONES OF SILENCE

"The search for intimacy with God involves the truly vital need of silence embracing the whole being, both for those who must find God in the midst of noise and confusion and for those who are dedicated to the contemplative life. To achieve this, their entire being has need of silence, and this requires zones of effective silence and a personal discipline to favour contact with God. (St. John Paul II)

Please help to make our church a zone of silence for those who come to pray. Talking in the church, even in whispers, can be a real distraction to those who are trying to focus on God.

Please keep socializing in the narthex to a minimum.

Many parishioners have discovered the coffee house downstairs in the parish hall. The Social Committee offers a variety of tasty food and treats, or simply tea, coffee or juices to make your visit all the more pleasant and enjoyable. Check it out! And you can stay as long as you like
