 Sacrament of Anointing & Communion to the Sick:
Available upon request

From the Pastors Desk:

So much of the ministry of Jesus involved healing and consoling those who were sick and distressed. This continues to be a large part of the work of the Church today, as many people need to hear the message of hope and consolation. Many Christians affirm that their religion provides great comfort in their lives.

But there are times when the Church is called to do more than affirm and comfort. There are times when the Church must challenge and oppose the evils of our society. Some members of the Church become very upset when this happens, when the Church speaks up against the social injustices in a public forum. Their argument is that Jesus was all about bringing comfort and hope, and not about division. Didn't he proclaim: "Peace I leave you, my peace I give you!"

Jesus was far from being a gentle and politically correct leader when He exclaimed: "I came to cast fire upon the earth, and would that it were already kindled. Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." Whenever we think that our faith is all about being nice and politically correct, we should look at Christ in today's Gospel who was completely consumed with a desire to save souls. He wanted to shake his listeners from sleep, and help them realize that to be his follower you must allow God's word to consume you like fire, so that there is nothing else left to guide you but God's word. We must remember that Christ paid for his convictions with His own blood. We must remember that early Christians suffered for their faith, many of them died. They were able to suffer for their faith because they were on fire for God, completely consumed by God's love.

Christ's challenge to be on fire for our faith is needed in our world today. What expectations do we have of religion today? How do we feel when the Church takes a stand on social issues? Do we believe that religion should remain "private"? If we find the practice of religion easy, we might consider whether we truly understand our faith. If the gospel doesn't shake us up now and then, we might consider whether we are truly listening.

The Alpha Program will be returning once again to St. Mary's Church. Alpha is a series of interactive sessions exploring the basics of Christian faith. Each session looks at a different question designed to create interesting conversation. There is no pressure, no follow-ups and no charge. It is simply an open, informal and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.

The course will be held every Tuesday, beginning on September 13 and continuing until November 15th. It will be held in St. Marys Parish Centre, starting with a social at 6pm. Food will include pastries, beverages, and a variety of sandwiches.

Bring a friend to experience alpha with you. Put together a group of 6 to form your own group. If you have an application already filled in, please drop it into the silver box located in the foyer of St. Marys Church.

Please look at the following link to get an idea of what the alpha program is about <https://youtu.be/1GE13TtHQCC>

If you have any questions, please call Allan Gordanier at 519-378-8307 or email him at allanwords22@yahoo.ca. Thank you.
