From the Pastors Desk:

Dear Parishioners,

Today marks the 4th week of advent, and a short week it is. The wax will barely dry on the 4th advent candle before we usher it away and replace it with Christmas decorations.

For those of us who are procrastinators, this poses a particular challenge. Christmas can feel like it has come too fast. We wish there was another week to get things ready.

Herein lies a meditation. Mary and Joseph did not know when their child would be born. They had an idea, but no exact day. So, when Mary's time came amid a long journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem it must have felt rushed. We know it was rushed because they couldn't even find proper lodging. We can imagine the holy couple saying, "We wish there was another week to get things ready."

But would they ever be ready? Given another week, would Mary and Joseph have found a home fit for the King of Kings? Given more time, would they have been ready to care for the prince of peace? I think not. But it's not their fault.

The child born in the manger was the Divine Son of God and all things belonged to Him. In other words, there was nothing Mary and Joseph could offer that He didn't already have.

How do you prepare for a child like that?

But that is the mystery of Christmas: that we had nothing to offer God and yet He still came.

Dwell on that for a while and it will change your perspective on being "prepared" for Christmas. Mary and Joseph were not prepared for their child, but they never could be. All they could do was prepare their hearts to receive an overwhelming gift that never could be imagined.

If you are behind in your preparations for Christmas, take some time to refocus on preparing your heart to receive that same gift.

God Bless,

Fr. David Reitzel

What is Alpha? We believe that everyone should have the chance to explore faith, ask questions, and share their point of view.

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each talk looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation.

Alpha is enjoyed all around the globe, and everyone is welcome. It runs in cafes, churches, universities, homes – you name it. No two Alphas look the same, but generally they have three key things in common: Connection, Content, and Conversation. Come and see.

Adoration – Adoration of the Holy Eucharist is cancelled for Friday, December 29th, 2023. Adoration will resume the following Friday, January 5th, 2024, after the 9:00 am Mass and continue until 8:00 pm.

Fourth Sunday of Advent – December 17, 2023 - From the angel Gabriel, Mary heard God's plan for her life, and she said "Yes!" ...and so, the Saviour came into the world. Mark Morley, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988, email vocations@hamiltondiocese.com or visit the website: hamiltondiocese.com/vocations/

We are such value to God that He came to live among us... and to guide us home. He will go to any length to seek us, even to being lifted high upon the cross to draw us back to Himself. We can only respond by loving God for His love.
