From the Pastor's Desk:

Today (3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time) has been named "Bible Sunday", as Pope Francis encourages all of us to make the reading of the Holy Bible part of our regular spiritual nourishment. As Catholics we are used to hearing the Word of God proclaimed at Mass, and explained in the preaching of the priest. This is already a great gift to us, which ensures that when we attend Mass regularly we become immersed in the Word of God. The focus of "Bible Sunday" is to encourage private reading and study of the Bible. There are so many ways of doing this with the help of resources that can assist in grasping the complexity of the Bible. My latest endeavour has been to provide a resource to understanding the Bible by offering introductory talks on the various books of the Bible. So far I have given presentations on the first 6 books of the Bible, and I hope to continue doing this every Wednesday evening at 7pm. These can be viewed at any time on my YouTube channel, or on my Podcast: Catholic Spirituality. Links to these can be found on our parish website. Another popular way of making the Bible a more personal part of our spiritual life is to create a Bible Study Group. A few parishioners can get together and discuss various aspects of each of the books I've presented on by sharing insights from reading through the book. The Bible is the most important book we have, and I am very pleased to hear that more and more people feel the attraction to study the Bible. I hope that we will take this to heart and find ways to make the Bible the one book we open every day.

Fr. Wojtek Kuzma

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - You are the body of Christ; every one of you is a member of it. As a member of the body, we serve different roles. Are you willing to do your part? If God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon contact Bishop Wayne Lobsinger, Director of Vocations and Priestly Formation, Diocese of Hamilton by phone (905-528-7988) or email vocations@hamiltondiocese.com website: www.hamiltondiocese.com/vocations/

Bible Sunday - The Diocese of Hamilton celebrates Bible Sunday on January 23, 2022. Bishop Crosby has chosen the third Sunday of Ordinary Time each year as our day to emphasize how #TheBibleSpeaks and how #WeListen. We encourage you to visit the Diocesan webpage dedicated to Bible Sunday 2022: www.hamiltondiocese.com/thebiblespeaks. Here you will find resources for adults, youth and children to help foster a relationship with God's living Word. It is not only a great resource for Bible Sunday weekend, but also for this Lectionary Year C.

PARENTING TIP OF THE MONTH - Our children are, in many ways, like sponges absorbing all we say and do. Even when we think they aren't watching or listening, they are often taking in our comments, actions and attitudes. In fact, our influence lasts their entire lives and impacts them throughout their lifetime. Equally important is what we don't say about something they are seeing or hearing or doing, since silence is considered consent. Parenting takes constant work, which is why it is considered a vitally important vocation. The rewards, however, of seeing your children grow into healthy, strong adults is worth the effort.

The 2021 – 2023 Synod of Bishops brings an invitation from Pope Francis to embark on a journey together. How can you get involved? Offer your thoughts on how we can deepen our communion in the Lord and how all members of the Church can participate more fully in its mission. Visit: <https://hamiltondiocese.com/synod/#about>
