From the Pastor's Desk:

Recently I was notified by some that an email scam has been circulating in which the scammers are presenting to be me. Scammers are sending an email from some random email address, and pretending to be me ask people to buy gift cards and send them the code on the back of these cards. Please be aware of this, and if you receive an email from me or anyone you know that looks suspicious, especially if the sender of the email is asking you for anything, switch to the phone technology and call the person. The same is true with Bank Accounts. Any request for money by email should be a red flag.

And on a happier note, please know that along with Fr. James and Fr. Francis we continue to pray for all of you daily, we remember you as we celebrate the daily Mass, the Breviary, and the Rosary. Stay positive, don't watch too much TV, and use this time as an opportunity for an extended personal retreat. A book can serve as a retreat guide to us, so don't let this opportunity pass you by. I am still available for spiritual direction and/or confession, or if you just need to talk, by phone or in person. Simply call or email to make an appointment.

Please note that Bishop Crosby has written a pastoral letter in response to the second lockdown. You will find it on our website under "Bulletins". I encourage you to read it.

"... We believers must return to our sources and concentrate on what is essential. What is essential to our faith is the adoration of God and love of neighbor. Let us pray that the Lord may give us the grace to live in full fellowship with our brothers and sisters of other religions and not fight each other, and praying for one another, open ourselves to all."
