* Sacrament of Anointing & Communion to the Sick:

From the Pastor’s Desk:

“Come away...” Jesus teaches us that at times we must distance ourselves from our work. We can easily give into temptation to just keep working, not taking a break. We may feel that we don’t want to waste time, we must finish the job, we must press on in order to get ahead. The problem with that attitude, though, is that we can lose focus, we can forget why we are working, and in the end we stop being productive. Without opportunities of distancing ourselves from our everyday business we can lose ourselves in our lives.

“...to a deserted place by yourselves...” Jesus invites the apostles to come away to a deserted place by themselves. It was important for Jesus to choose a place that was deserted, silent. The need for silence and solitude is found in every human heart, because it is in silence that we can find God. Only in silence and solitude can we let go of all the noise that clutters our lives, and we can begin to think, reflect, and listen to the whisper of God. Jesus is depicted in the Gospels taking that time of silence and solitude for himself. We read that early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus would go away to a deserted place and pray. It was important for Jesus to spend that time with God the Father, without any distractions, just him alone with the Father. It was important for Jesus to teach the apostles to make time for solitude, silence, and prayer. It is important for us to take that time in our lives and come away to a place where we can experience a personal encounter with God through prayer.

“... and rest a while” The point of coming away to a deserted place was to rest. We must understand that when Jesus speaks of rest, he does not mean taking the time to run away from reality, from your life. The problem with seeing rest as a time of running away for a while is that when we come back all the craziness of our life will still be there. When Jesus speaks of rest he invites the apostles to an experience of silent prayer, meditation and reflection. It is a time to be renewed by the presence of God and the gift of looking at our lives from a distance. The goal of our rest is to help us embrace our life, to be renewed in our relationship with God and our understanding of ourselves. When we take the time for this kind of rest we will come back ready to face our life with joy and understanding.

New Guidelines at Mass:

Lectors may be used once again at the Masses; the Communion dialogue may resume, when Holy Communion is received; those wishing to receive Holy Communion on the tongue may do so, providing they come last in communion procession.

Masks must still be worn, and physical distancing must still be respected, but no number restrictions in the churches.

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time - In the Gospel many people hunger for a small amount of food. In our day, there are too many people for the small number of priests, sisters, brothers and deacons. We too must trust in the Lord by praying for vocations. If you feel God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Most Rev. Wayne Lobsinger, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Hamilton: call 905-528-7988 ext. 2222 or email:

World Grandparents / Elderly Day – July 25th

Pope Francis has declared the fourth Sunday of July as World Grandparents and the Elderly Day, since it coincides with the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, Jesus’ grandparents. The words below were taken from an address given by the Pope on the Feast of Families in the IX World meeting of Families, Dublin, 25 August 2018: A society – listen carefully to this! – a society that does not value grandparents is a society that has no future. A Church that is not mindful of the covenant between generations will end up lacking the thing that really matters, which is love. Our grandparents teach us the meaning of conjugal and parental love. They themselves grew up in a family and experienced the love of sons and daughters, brothers and sisters. So they are a treasury of experience, a treasury of wisdom for the new generation. It is a big mistake not to ask the elderly about their experience, or to think that talking to them is a waste of time.

Marriage Support - Is your marriage experiencing more trouble than joy, feeling stagnant or disconnected and/or causing you worries? The solution is Retrouvaille - a program for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationship. Retrouvaille has one purpose: to help couples restore their marriage and rebuild a loving partnership. This is a practical program, where sharing is not required except between the couple themselves, designed to improve communication, build stronger marriages, and help couples reconnect. It also works well for couples who may be considering separation or divorce. Retrouvaille is offering their weekends by zoom offering more possibilities for engagement. For more information call 905-664-5212 or email teamrecine@gmail.com.

Catechetical Correspondence Courses - Programs are available for children from Kindergarten through to High School who are not currently receiving religious instruction. Preparation for First Communion and Confirmation for children not in Catholic Schools is also available. Families work through the programs at home. Contact Christina in the Catechesis Office at 905-528-7988, ext. 2239 or check out the Diocesan website at www.hamiltondiocese.com and click on Faith Formation and Liturgy for more information, printable registration forms or to register online.
