I have been giving some thought lately to the gifts that I have in my life. I have read something not too long ago that listed gifts in life and thanked God for each one. Unfortunately, I cannot remember where I saw it. Then Fr. Wojtek spoke of the Gift of Hospitality in his recent bulletin piece. I have many gifts in my life that I am thankful for and I am sure most of you do, as well.

One of the gifts I have been thinking about is the Gift of Friendship. This is most likely foremost in my mind right now since I have been contacted by some very old and dear friends wanting to get together this summer. One has been my best friend since grade 5 and the other for over twenty years. I am so thankful to have these women in my life! I don't get to see them often because of the distance we live from each other, but I know that they are always there for me, as they know I am there for them. When we get together it is like no time has passed.

All of us have friends that move away for one reason or another, whether it has to do with going to a new school or starting a new job. Perhaps they had to move to help look after a sick or aging family member. It is sad when a friend moves away and we do not get to see them as often, but their friendship is still a joy and a gift in our lives. Sometimes we meet new people and they become good friends. The time we know someone does not matter when we receive the gift of friendship.

A quote from Merle Shain comes to mind, "The people in your life are like pillars on a porch. Sometimes they hold you up, and sometimes they lean on you, and sometimes it is just enough to know they're standing by."

I am so thankful to God for all the pillars in my life!

Brenda Lee
