From the Pastor's Desk:

No to 'Self Help' - The history of philosophy can be divided into three distinct periods: ancient, medieval, and modern. Each period has a unique focus. Ancient philosophy focused on the cosmos as the centre of all inquiry, we call it cosmological approach. In this cosmological approach people saw beauty and wonder in all that surrounded them, and looked for wisdom in those realities. Cosmos provided them with the necessary content for thinking, reflecting, and understanding. In the Middle Ages philosophy shifted to a theocentric approach. This approach looked towards God as the focus of all wisdom and wonder. Reflections on the existence of God and His creative power became the key to understanding a sense of meaning and purpose for our lives. With Rene Descartes and his famous quote: "I think therefore I am" modern philosophy was born. Modern philosophy is anthropocentric, meaning that it is focused on the human experience as the source of all wisdom and wonder. From our faith's perspective we would say that this modern approach to philosophy has moved us away from God and from the world around us. It placed me, a human being, as the centre of the universe. We see the influence of this modern approach to philosophy even today with the very popular "self-help" approach to resolving our problems. Just go to the book store and see how many "self-help" books exist, with their modern philosophical approach to resolving human dilemmas, namely, only you can help you. As Christians we have a very different way of responding to human problems. Instead of helping ourselves we look to God and seek His help. After all, if we look honestly at our past experiences it is hard to deny the limitations that exist within ourselves. We can't do it alone. This modern approach to philosophy and human existence has failed us, leaving us isolated, frustrated, and lonely. The Church provides us with a much better approach to life. It is focused on a realization that we are not alone, we were created by God, we exist with God's help, and we are called to move closer to God. God also provides us with the best help on this journey. Instead of a "self-help" book, God gives us Himself. The best way to fight against difficulties is not by retreating deeper into our own selves, but moving closer to God and His holy people. Next time you feel in need of some help, don't look for a "self-help" book. Instead, pick up God's Holy Word and seek God's wisdom for your life. Come to Church and be with others who believe in the One who can heal. Know that you are not alone, God is with you, God has something to offer you.

Marriage Tip of the Month - Touch is important to every human, but when life is busy we can forget its value. A quick kiss, a touch of the arm or back, a quick or long back scratch are just a few ways that spouses can remain close to each other. Each touch bonds us together and touching when intimacy is not part of the exchange means so much more: it says I love you, you are important and I need you. So hold hands, sit close on the couch and find little and big ways to touch. It will have a profound impact on your connectedness! (Family Ministry Office, Diocese of Hamilton)

Have you experienced the death of a child at any time in your life, including before birth or a still birth? Come to the Healing Mass for Those Mourning the Loss of a Child – the Mass will be celebrated on the First Sunday of Advent as a way of providing some healing, as we know the feelings of loss are often more profound during the Christmas season. Join us on Sunday, December 1st at the 4 P.M. Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of Christ the King. The Mass is intended for parents, grandparents and other family members who have been impacted by such a loss. Registration is preferred, but not necessary, as it will assist us in knowing how many spaces to reserve and to ensure we have enough of the small memento each family will receive. To register please call Lena at 905-528-7988 ext. 2249, or register on-line at www.hamiltondiocese.com. God is close to those who mourn, come and experience His healing presence.

For the Sick, our fellow parishioners and family members who are in need of our prayers: for Caroline Fitzpatrick, Scott Fitzpatrick, Steven Scott, Shelley Curley, Ron McCoy, Patricia McMillan, Jim Cooper, Karl Fortney, Shannon Daultrey, Marjorie Forcier, Arthur Diaz, Sherri Maine, Paul Van Scheyndel, Paul Bagget, Doug Woolway, Coleen Warmington, baby Sutton and baby Kellen, Rosaleen Engel, Marilyn Schinbein, Becki Knisley, Joanne LaFlamme Talbot, June Peet, Mike Adams, Sharon Cantlon, Tom McDonnell, Maureen McTeague, Vern Finlayson, Fred Fries, Josh Cahoon, and Sean McTeague, - We pray to the Lord. If you or a loved one are in need of prayer, please call the office. Each year – beginning in September - we will begin our prayer list anew.
