Available upon request

From the Pastors Desk:

A country boy was told by his teacher that he needed glasses; he was not able to see the blackboard and was getting behind in his classes. His father scoffed at the idea—only sissies wore glasses. He saved his money until he was able to buy a pair in Woolworths. They were not prescription glasses, but they made a vast improvement. He hid them until late one night he sneaked out of the house and looked at the beautiful starlit sky. For the first time in his life he saw the Big and Little Dipper and realized that stars actually seemed to twinkle. He was so overcome with emotion that he wept at what he had been missing all his life.

Thanksgiving. The gratitude we owe to God should show itself in how we appreciate others who have played an important part in our lives. How often people fail in gratitude towards parents who gave them the precious gift of life. Or to others who have made a significant difference in their life. Do we sufficiently thank God for the beautiful rich and free country we live in, compared to the 2/3 of the world's population who are not free and who go to bed hungry every night?

People seldom appreciate health until they get sick and stare death in the face, or when they get old and reach the metallic age—“silver in their hair, gold in their teeth, stainless steel joints in their knees or hips and lead in their pants.” We envy millionaires, but would you sell your children for a million dollars, your eyesight, your hearing, your mobility, your mind, your freedom?

In today's gospel, the point is not that in one day 10 lepers were cured, but that everyone who comes to him with a deep faith can be healed of the leprosy of sin, can be made whole again, regardless of race, nationality, social condition, etc.

During this Eucharist, count your blessings, and like the Samaritan leper try to thank God, through Jesus Christ his Son, for the many graces and healings you have received, and ask his pardon for the times you have taken his goodness for granted.

Fr. Wojtek Kuzma

St. Mary's Catholic Charities is looking for any spare plastic shopping bags you may have. They are needed for the food bank. If you have some, please put them in the green bin in the foyer of the Church. Thank you!

Rectory Fundraising Project — If you missed ordering a copy of Margery's book, Love 101 — a woman's perspective, it is not too late. She will be putting in another order in time for Christmas.

The books are $25 each and all proceeds go to the Rectory Building Fund. You can pre-pay through Brenda at the parish office, or by e-transferring directly to Margery at macfrisch@gmail.com.

The deadline for ordering the book through Brenda is Friday, October 28th. If you're e-transferring to Margery, you have 'til midnight on Monday, October 31st. Thank you for supporting this fundraising project.

The Choir is returning - St. Mary's beloved choir is returning the Sunday after Thanksgiving. We have lost a few members and really need new members. This is a special and terrific ministry! No auditions required and all voices welcomed. First practice is Wednesday, Oct. 12 from 7-8:30 pm in the Church. Practices are every Wednesday at this time. Though we are one choir, and sing as one for all the special Liturgies at Christmas and Easter, you may choose the Sunday Mass you prefer to attend. Please help us to rebuild the choir. Corry and Don Life Chain - A sincere thank you to the 47 parishioners of St. Mary's and the Missions who came to stand in defence of Life on Main Street in Owen Sound. God Bless You All.

St. Thomas Aquinas Rosary Vigil continues Wednesdays at 6:30 pm in Warton. Please come and join us in praying the Rosary for the peoples of Ukraine and Russia.

The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary' - Saint Francis de Sales

God bless you for your generosity.

The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself.

2 Timothy 2:11- 13

Love endures everything; love is stronger than death; love fears nothing.
