Chalice

Chalice works in impoverished communities to help struggling families overcome the cycle of poverty. Education is the first and most important step in breaking the cycle. Too often, children must skip class or drop out of school to carry water, care for siblings, or earn money for their families.

Sponsorship gives children the support needed to overcome obstacles so they can attend and stay in school, and allows families to provide nutritious food and better care for their children. Children are selected for sponsorship based on need and family circumstances, regardless of race, age, ability, gender, or religion. Education gives every child the opportunity to shine.

Ukraine Regional Assistance Fund

Although the recent security situation in our Ukrainian sites has been relatively stable, families and site staff continue to struggle with frequent air raid sirens and lengthy power outages. Additionally, families must try to cope with the ongoing hardships of lost wages and increases in the cost of almost everything.

In light of Ukraine's ongoing struggles, we are continuing to accept donations to the Ukraine Regional Assistance Fund, to help families cope with the hardships they continue to endure. A generous Chalice supporter is offering a matching gift of $500,000 for donations to the fund. To donate go to: chalice.ca

Private Retreat Days

Are you ready to unplug from the world for a few days and take some time to relax, read, journal and not be on call? Do you need a getaway to catch up on some sleep and not have to worry about going anywhere or having to return a phone call? Our retreat center is open during the week for private or small group retreats. Come for one night or stay for a few, meals included. Single overnight cost is $150, cost for more than one night is $125 per night. To register or for more information visit www.hfrh.ca or email hfrh@dol.ca or call 519-738-6136.

Room at the Table

BUILDING A CULTURE OF HOSPITALITY IN YOUR PARISH

As members of the Church, we strive to grow in our relationship with God and help others to do the same. Many people are not drawn to the Church without first feeling at home, like they belong. Hospitality makes the Church feel like home. It allows people to experience the Church in the most human way: imperfectly, with love.

The priest, deacon or pastoral minister cannot be present in every pew of every Mass to do this welcoming. It is up to the people sitting in the pew, the people who make up the Body of Christ, in His Church.

We are all called to engage in active hospitality. Here's an example to help illustrate what that means. Imagine you were invited to attend a great banquet, but you had to go alone:

SCENARIO ONE

You see a table with some empty seats. You approach the table and ask to join them. They say yes!

PASSIVE HOSPITALITY

SCENARIO TWO

Someone notices you and they introduce themselves and invite you to join them at their table.

ACTIVE HOSPITALITY

Active hospitality in a church could look like:

- A kind and simple greeting at the door
- People in the pews, not just greeters, noticing new people and saying hello
- Helping people find the washrooms or accessible entrances
- Welcoming children and families

Tips for Engaging Conversations at Church

It is easy to come to church week after week and miss opportunities to build community with the people around you.

Community and belonging start with conversation. Here are some quick tips for meaningful conversations at church:

- Ask people their names. Even if you have been sitting near them for years, start with, "I should probably know this, but what is your name?"
- Engage in small talk to build trust, then get to more meaningful conversations. You can keep some "go-to" questions in mind like: Have you read any good books? What does your family do for fun?
- Continue the conversation. Try to touch base with someone each week, even if it's just talking as you file out of the church after Mass. Foster those connections and try to add new ones regularly.
- Pray for each other. As you're talking, ask the simple question, "How can I pray for you this week?"

How can you make room at the table?

What is Nurturing Joy?

As a mission-oriented church forming disciples of Jesus, our Diocese wants to continue building a culture of hospitality and belonging. The Nurturing Joy Initiative is supporting our Families of Parishes as they boost the sense of welcome and community that parishioners and visitors feel when they are in our churches, our facilities and at our events.
