World Day of Migrants and Refugees September 24, 2023

109th World Day of Migrants and Refugees, "Free to choose whether to migrate or to stay", Pope Francis reminds us that the decision to migrate in many cases is not a free choice. It is the result of persecution, wars, atmospheric phenomena and dire poverty, armed conflicts, natural disasters, or the impossibility of living a dignified in one's native land. "Eliminating these causes and thus putting an end to forced migration calls for shared commitment on the part of all, in accordance with the responsibilities of each. This commitment begins with asking what we can do, but also what we need to stop doing. We need to make every effort to halt the arms race, economic colonialism, the plundering of other people's resources and the devastation of our common home." We are all asked to respond to the cry of the poor and the cry of the earth. What are we doing to create a more just and peaceful world for all? "Only by walking together will we be able to go far and reach the common goal of our journey."

AND

Time is irrelevant to grief. I cannot tell you that it will feel better or worse as time goes by; I can just tell you that it feels better and worse as time goes by. The only guarantee is that however you feel right now, you will not always feel this way. ~ Nora McInerney
