Reflection on the First Reading: Isaiah 43: 16-21

4:30 PM

In this reading from Isaiah, the Prophet looks forward to a better future for the ancient Israelites. The first several lines of the reading consist of a description of God's power over creation and His military might. These divine attributes are described in such a way that they evoke memories of the parting of the Red Sea and the subsequent destruction of Pharaoh's army in the Book of Exodus. We are thus subtly encouraged to recall God's past wondrous deeds. This makes the Lord's statement immediately following these recollections startling, as He commands the people, "Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing." It seems like it would be impossible to recognize that something is new unless a person knows what has already happened or how things used to be. However, this contradiction of recollection lays the foundation for God's assurance that He is "about to do a new thing."

OOTC Community Supper

What is this new thing? It is God's restoration of His people. This restoration is evidenced by God's provision of life-sustaining water. His creative power is further reinforced as He brings water to the wilderness, and wild animals are tamed as they honour Him. Isaiah

Every Friday in Lent – Stations

of the Cross at 7 PM.
On April 11 the Stations are led by Book Group Members.

Revised schedule! Following the Stations of the Cross on Mar. 28 & April 11 there will be a screening (in 2 parts, 45 min. each) of a talk by Dr. Brant Pitre: The Jewish Roots of Holy Week: The 7 Last Days of Jesus.

If you knew you only had one week left to live, how would you spend it? What would you do? Most people know that Jesus celebrated the Last Supper on Holy Thursday, died on Good Friday, and lay dead in the tomb on Holy Saturday. But what about the other days of Holy Week? What did Jesus choose to say and do on the last seven days of His life?

In these riveting presentations, Dr. Brant Pitre takes his knowledge of the Jewish roots of Christianity and uses it to unveil the mysteries of the most sacred and solemn week of the entire year: "Holy Week." In these presentations, you will discover:

- 1. Palm Sunday: Why did Jesus ride into Jerusalem on a donkey?
- 2-3. Holy Monday-Tuesday: Why did Jesus curse the fig tree on holy Monday?
- 4. Spy Wednesday: What is the hidden meaning to Judas' betrayal of Jesus? And why is this day called "Spy Wednesday"?
- 5. Holy Thursday: How exactly did the disciples prepare the Passover for Jesus?
- 6. Good Friday: What is the meaning of the blood and water that flowed from Jesus' side?
- 7. Holy Saturday: Why did Jesus rest in the tomb? Where did Jesus' soul go on Holy Saturday?
- 8. Easter Sunday: Why did Jesus rise on the "first day of the week"?

If you're looking to to truly enter into the mystery of Holy Week with Jesus, then this Bible study is for you. This Bible Study video will also be shown 9:30 – 10:15 AM Tuesdays April 1 & 8. All welcome!

clearly states that the purpose of the water in the desert is so that God's people can drink. It is not an arbitrary act of God, nor is it intended for the wild animals or the desert itself. If the animals can recognize God's glory in His actions, humanity's response to those actions should be exponentially greater. God works in this way so that His people "might declare my praise."

Like the command to the ancient Israelites to both recall and forget, we must reflect on our own transformation, recalling who we were and then leaving it behind so that we can better appreciate and focus on who we are now in Christ. Our Lenten desert will be similarly transformed into Easter joy and give us cause for praise. Today's reading prepares us for that moment two weeks from now when we will rejoice and glorify God for His mercy and love, triumphant in Jesus' Resurrection. (From Workbook for Lectors)

Good Friday Family Liturgy 10 AM - Dramatization of the Gospel. We are looking for people of all ages to help with this dramatization. Whole families doing this together is a wonderful experience. Grandparents, aunts, and uncles are all welcome to join us. Children under 8 need to have at least one parent with them. This dramatization is done tableaux style. This means that actors will pose, creating a scene. The readers will read a section of the Gospel. Then the actors will shift and go into different poses, creating a new scene. The readers will continue reading another section of the Gospel. There are no speaking parts for those who are doing the tableaux. We also as family groups have the privilege of carrying the cross up to Fr. Phil when it is time for the veneration of the cross. This dramatization is a beautiful way to participate and experience Good Friday with your family. There will be two practices, Sundays April 6th & 13th following the 11:30 AM Mass. I will feed you and then we will proceed with the practice. If you can help with this event, please contact Kelly Krause at the parish office or see her in the nursery on Sundays to sign up.

Saint of the Day for April 11

Saint Stanislaus' Story (July 26, 1030–April 11, 1079)

Anyone who reads the history of Eastern Europe cannot help but chance on the name of Stanislaus, the saintly but tragic bishop of Kraków, patron of Poland. He is remembered with Saints Thomas More and Thomas Becket for vigorous opposition to the evils of an unjust government.

Born in Szczepanów near Kraków on July 26, 1030, he was ordained a priest after being educated in the cathedral schools of Gniezno, then capital of Poland, and at Paris. He was appointed preacher and archdeacon to the bishop of Kraków, where his eloquence and example brought about real conversion in many of his penitents, both clergy and laity. He became bishop of Kraków in 1072.

During an expedition against the Grand Duchy of Kiev, Stanislaus became involved in the political situation of Poland. Known for his outspokenness, he aimed his attacks at the evils of the peasantry and the king, especially the unjust wars and immoral acts of King Boleslaus II.

The king first excused himself, then made a show of penance, then relapsed into his old ways. Stanislaus continued his open opposition in spite of charges of treason and threats of death, finally excommunicating the king. Enraged, the latter ordered soldiers to kill the bishop. When they refused, the king killed Stanislaus with his own hands. Forced to flee to Hungary, Boleslaus supposedly spent the rest of his life as a penitent in the Benedictine abbey in Osiak.

Reflection: Saints John the Baptist, Thomas Becket, Thomas More, and Stanislaus are a few of the prophets who dared to denounce corruption in high places. They followed in the footsteps of Jesus Himself, who pointed out the moral corruption in the religious leadership of His day. It is a risky business. Saint Stanislaus is the Patron Saint of Poland, soldiers in battle, moral order. (From franciscanmedia.org)

Legend: Stanislaus initial conflict with King Bolesław was over a land dispute. Stanislaus had purchased for the diocese a piece of land on the banks of the Vistula River near Lublin from a certain Peter (Piotr), but after Piotr's death the land had been claimed by his family. The King ruled for the claimants, but according to legend, Stanislaus resurrected Piotr so that he could confirm that he had sold the land to the bishop.

Stanislaus asked the King for three days to produce his witness, Piotr. The King and the court were said to have laughed at the absurd request, but the King granted Stanislaus the three days. Stanislaus spent them in ceaseless prayer and, dressed in full bishop's regalia, went with a procession to the cemetery where Piotr had been buried three years earlier. He had Piotr's grave dug up until his remains were discovered. Then, before a multitude of witnesses, Stanislaus made Piotr rise, and Piotr did so. Piotr was then dressed in a cloak and brought before King Bolesław to testify. The dumbfounded court heard Piotr reprimand his three sons and testify that Stanislaus had indeed paid for the land. Unable to give any other verdict, the King dismissed the suit against the bishop. Stanislaus asked Piotr whether he would remain alive, but Piotr declined and so was laid to rest once more in his grave and was reburied. (From en.wikipedia.org)
