Reflection on the First Reading: Daniel 7: 13-14

Today's first reading focuses on the Prophet Daniel's description of the "son of man". In the Old Testament, the title "son of man" is mostly used as a generic term for man/humanity/mortal. Ezekiel uses it with this sense around seventy times. However, in today's reading, Daniel seems to attribute a different sense to the phrase.

This passage from Daniel depicts the son of man's heavenly descent. Furthermore, this figure is described as having received dominion, glory, and kingship. This first reading emphasizes the universality of the son of man's kingship which encompasses "all peoples, nations, and languages." Furthermore, his kingship is perpetual, withstanding all trials and tribulations. The son of man reflects God's sovereignty over all of humanity.

The question remains of who, then, is meant by the "son of man" in this reading. There are several possible contenders, including the faithful community, the Angel Michael, the Angel Gabriel, Judas Maccabeus, Daniel himself, or simply a generic human being. There is no clear answer to the question, though it seems less likely to refer to a generic person in this instance.

Both Old Testament sense of "son of man" appear in the New Testament. While at times the phrase seems to refer to humanity in general, it is used in Acts 7:56 to refer to Jesus standing at the right

Join us as we watch a video and discuss ways to cope while still being able to find joy in each moment trusting that there will be brighter days ahead. Date: Wed., Dec. 4th 7 – 8:30 PM (doors open at 6:30 PM) at St. Michael Parish Centre (basement) – 80 University Ave. W., Waterloo. Waterloo Knights of Columbus invites all Catholic men, 18 and older, to join us! We are a charitable organization that helps our community in many ways. To find out more, or to visit us, call our recruitment manager Al Kehn @ 519-778-2083 or email popkehn@gmail.com. Is Jesus calling you today?

Resurrectionist Vocation Minute - The word "vocation" comes from the Latin root word "vocare", which means "to call". It's where we get the English word "voice" from. If you want to know your vocation, you have to be open to hearing the voice of Jesus - which He tells us in today's Gospel, is what we hear whenever we hear the truth. If we can humbly listen to the truth about ourselves, we will recognize the voice of Jesus and what He is calling us to, which will be our vocation. Fr. Raphael Ma. CR: resurrectionistvocation@gmail.com

Saint Andrew's Story (d. 60?) - November 30

Andrew was St. Peter's brother, and was called with him. "As [Jesus] was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is now called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea; they were fishermen. He said to them, 'Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.' At once they left their nets and followed him".

John the Evangelist presents Andrew as a disciple of John the Baptist. When Jesus walked by one day, John said, "Behold, the Lamb of God." Andrew and another disciple followed Jesus. "Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi (which translated means Teacher), where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come, and see.' So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day". Before the multiplication of the loaves, it was Andrew who spoke up about the boy who had the barley loaves and fishes. When the Gentiles went to see Jesus, they came to Philip, but Philip then had recourse to Andrew.

Andrew preached the Good News in what is now modern Greece and Turkey and was crucified at Patras on an X-shaped cross.

He is the Patron Saint of: Fishermen, Greece, Russia and Scotland. (From franciscanmedia.org)

Prayer for Deceased Parents

O God, Who has commanded us to honor our father and mother, have compassion in Thy mercy, on the souls of my father and mother; forgive them their sins, and grant that I may see them in the joy of eternal brightness. Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Prayer for Forgotten Souls

O merciful God, take pity on those souls who have no particular friends and intercessors to recommend them to Thee, who, either through the negligence of those who are alive, or through the length of time are forgotten by their friends and by all. Spare them, O Lord, and remember Thine own mercy, when others forget to appeal to it. Let not the souls which Thou hast created be parted from thee, their Creator. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. (From stpatricksto.archtoronto.org)
