EASTER MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTORS

Dear friends in Christ,

The antiphon of the invitatory Psalm of the Divine Office during Lent "Christ the Lord was tempted and suffered for us, come let us adore Him." This antiphon is not merely saying that Christ was tempted and that He suffered, but that He went through all these for our sake. Indeed, the passion of Christ which we celebrated is the climax of the incarnation, when God assumed our humanity in Christ and suffered the full burden of what all human beings have to go through in life each day—temptations, anxieties, pain, fear, hunger, injustices, betrayal, false accusations, being misunderstood, taken for granted, used and abused, manipulated, despised, ridiculed, humiliated, and sickness and death. Jesus went through all these to truly journey with us in life and in death. By His death and resurrection, Jesus gave us a sure hope that all we go through in our humanity will flower in the resurrection. His resurrection gives us confidence that suffering will be overcome by those who have faith in God and are willing to walk the way of our Lord. Without the resurrection, the mysteries of life would be inexplicable. Christ's life, death and resurrection are the answers to the riddles of suffering, sin, death and life. It is significant that after His resurrection, the angel instructed the women at the tomb to "go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.'" (Matthew 28.7).

As resurrected disciples of our Lord today, we must walk in faith, and always with the Risen Lord. Where is the Risen Lord to be found? He is found in the scriptures, especially when we share the Word of God with our fellow brothers and sisters. He is encountered in the sacraments, especially in the celebration of the Eucharist. As a resurrected people, we must walk with each other as a community so that we can recognize and encounter His presence in our lives. When we share our food, struggles, joys and life with each other; when we share the Word of God together; worship and pray together, the Risen Lord is in our midst. This was what the early Church did (Acts 2:43-47). If there are some Christians who have not yet encountered the Risen Lord, it is because they walk alone in this journey of faith. When we are cut off from others, from our fellow brothers and sisters in faith, because of sin, selfishness, individualism and pride, we cannot encounter the Risen Lord. Today, the Risen Lord is present in a real way when we strive to be a synodal Church at every level of Church life. To be a synodal Church is to walk with each other, in good times and in bad, always forgiving each other and encouraging each other along the way, never giving up hope on each other. We are called to share our faith, our struggles, our pains, our joys, and aspirations as Church members of St. Boniface Parish, we must walk as one Church, one body of the Risen Lord, with Christ as our head. We cannot walk alone. We must walk with each other in this journey of faith and life, so that we can leave the desert of sin and enter into the Promised Land of love and life. We do not walk alone, but the Lord walks with us. He has gone ahead of us and He is in our midst. Be brave, take courage, as the Lord told His disciples, "I have conquered the world." (John 16.33).

Jesus Christ is Risen! Alleluia!
