Rich in Poverty:

Scott Hahn Reflects on the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:
Jeremiah 17-5-8
Psalms 1
1 Corinthians 15.12,
16-20
Luke 6.23

The blessings and woes we hear in today's Gospel mark the perfection of all the wisdom of the Old Testament. That wisdom is summed up with marvelous symmetry in today's First Reading and Psalm: Each declares that the righteous—those who hope in the Lord and delight in His Law—will prosper like a tree planted near living waters. The wicked, who put their "trust in human beings," are cursed to wither and die. Jesus is saying the same thing in the Gospel. The rich and poor are, for Him, more than members of literal economic classes. Their material state symbolizes their spiritual state. The rich are "the insolent" of today's Psalm, boasting of their self-sufficiency, the strength of their flesh, as Jeremiah says in the First Reading. The poor are the humble, who put all their hope and trust in the Lord. We've already seen today's dramatic imagery of reversal in Mary's "Magnificat." There, too, the rich are cast down while the hungry are filled and the lowly exalted. That's the upside-down world of the Gospel: in poverty we gain spiritual treasure unimaginable; in suffering and even dying "on account of the Son of Man," we find everlasting life. The promises of the Old Testament were promises of power and prosperity—in the here and now. The promise of the New Covenant is joy and true freedom even amid the misery and toil of this life. But not only that. As Paul says in today's Epistle, we're to be pitied if our hope is "for this life only." The blessings of God mean that we'll laugh with the thanksgiving of captives released from exile, feast at the heavenly table of the Lord, "leap for joy" as John the Baptist leapt in his mother's womb (see Luke 6:23; 1:41, 44), and rise with Christ, "the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep."

Thank you to Dr. Scott Hahn and the St. Paul Center for the use of the weekly Mass reflections. More resources are available at www.stpaulcenter.com

REFERENCE LETTERS FOR TEACHER CANDIDATES

From time to time I am approached by Teacher Candidates or other Candidates for Employment for the Toronto Catholic District School Board with a request for a reference letter. I believe that the Catholic Schools are of great benefit in assisting parents in fulfilling the promises they made before God, of bringing up their children in the practice of the Catholic Faith. Parents, therefore, reasonably expect that the Catholic Schools will impart an education based on Catholic beliefs. As such, in order for me to provide a letter of reference, I need to be assured that the Teacher Candidate or other Candidate for Employment is a practising member of St. Boniface parish. The basic requirement that needs to be met is that the Candidate participates weekly in the Sunday Eucharist, which is the Source and Summit of our Catholic Faith. Since it is not possible for me to know every parishioner by name, it is imperative that Candidates register as members of our faith community.

Fr. Peter
