CYCLE C (LUKE)

Into the Deep: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Isaiah 6:1–8

Psalms 138:1–5, 7–8

1 Corinthians 15:1–11

Luke 5:1–11

Simon Peter, the fisherman, is the first to be called personally by Jesus in Luke's Gospel. His calling resembles Isaiah's commissioning in the First Reading: confronted with the holiness of the Lord, both Peter and Isaiah are overwhelmed by a sense of their own sinfulness and inadequacy. Yet each experiences the Lord's forgiveness and is sent to preach the good news of His mercy to the world. No one is "fit to be called an apostle," Paul recognizes in today's Epistle. But by "the grace of God," even a persecutor of the Church—as Paul once was—can be lifted up for the Lord's service. In the Old Testament, humanity was unfit for the divine—no man could stand in God's presence and live (see Exodus 33:20). But in Jesus, we're made able to speak with Him face-to-face, to taste His Word on our tongue. Today's scene from Isaiah is recalled in every Mass. Before reading the Gospel, the priest silently asks God to cleanse his lips that he might worthily proclaim His Word. God's Word comes to us as it came to Peter, Paul, Isaiah, and today's Psalmist—as a personal call to leave everything and follow Him, to surrender our weaknesses in order to be filled with His strength. Simon put out into deep waters even though, as a professional fisherman, he knew it would be foolhardy to expect to catch anything. In humbling himself before the Lord's command, he was exalted—his nets filled to overflowing; later, as Paul tells us, he will become the first to see the risen Lord.

Thank you to Dr. Scott Hahn and the St. Paul Center for the use of the weekly Mass reflections. More resources are available at www.stpaulcenter.com

WORLD DAY OF THE SICK 2022

The Universal Church will celebrate the Thirtieth World Day of the Sick on Friday, February 11.

While our in-person parish celebrations are limited this year, we encourage you to use this occasion as an opportunity to pray for the sick and recognize those who provide them assistance and care. We encourage this recognition and prayer through the many channels of communication in healthcare institutions, within families and in parish communities via livestream and online bulletins. We especially remember and pray for all those who have suffered, and continue to suffer, the effects of the coronavirus pandemic.
