CYCLE C (LUKE)

What We Must Do: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Deuteronomy 30:10–14

Psalms 69:14, 17, 30–31, 33–34, 36–37

Colossians 1:15–20

Luke 10:25–37

We are to love God and our neighbor with all the strength of our being, as the scholar of the Law answers Jesus in this week's Gospel. This command is nothing remote or mysterious—it's already written in our hearts, in the book of Sacred Scripture. "You have only to carry it out," Moses says in this week's First Reading. Jesus tells His interrogator the same thing: "Do this and you will live." The scholar, however, wants to know where he can draw the line. That's the motive behind his question, "Who is my neighbor?" In his compassion, the Samaritan in Jesus' parable reveals the boundless mercy of God, Who came down to us when we were fallen in sin, close to dead, unable to pick ourselves up. Jesus is "the image of the invisible God," this week's Epistle tells us. In Him, the love of God has come very near to us. By the "blood of His Cross"—by bearing His neighbors' sufferings in His own body, being Himself stripped and beaten and left for dead—He saved us from the bonds of sin and reconciled us to God and to one another. Like the Samaritan, He pays the price for us, heals the wounds of sin, pours out on us the oil and wine of the sacraments, and entrusts us to the care of His Church until He comes back for us. Because His love has known no limits, ours cannot either. We are to love as we have been loved, to do for others what He has done for us, joining all things together in His Body, the Church. We are to love like the singer of this week's Psalm—like those whose prayers have been answered, like those whose lives have been saved, who have known the time of His favor, have seen God in His great mercy turn toward us. This is the love that leads to eternal life, the love Jesus commands today of the scholar and of each of us: "Go and do likewise."

SACRAMENTS OF FIRST RECONCILIATION, FIRST HOLY COMMUNION AND CONFIRMATION

Parents of children who have not received the Sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion and Confirmation are reminded that since the Sacraments are proper to the family and church and not the school system, they should attend Sunday Eucharist at their respective parishes and enroll their children in the Sacramental preparation programs. Please contact your parish regarding enrollment dates. If you and your child are not coming to Mass regularly, you may not hear about the enrollment dates and deadlines.

In the Fall, we at St. Boniface Church will return to having our Parent Meetings for Enrollment in these Sacraments. The dates and times will be published in our church bulletin and announced in the Fall at Masses beginning in September.

Let us work together to help our children receive these sacraments and to know the love God has for them.

WELCOME TO OUR NEWLY BAPTIZED

Month of June: John Calvin Castro Lasqueti, Liam George Callahan, Ivy Grace Bernardo and Zackary Alexander DeJuan Talavera.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEWLYWEDS

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 10, 2022

It's a simple concept: love God with your whole being and put that love into practice. How is God calling you to love? Have you considered the way of loving called 'priesthood', 'diaconate' or 'religious life'? If God is calling you contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.
