Let us give thanks to the Lord

We thank thee, Lord,

For fields of grain

Gold and ripe from summer's rain,

For hillsides bright with scarlet trees

That rustle in the autumn breeze,

For friend so dear,

For those we love,

For all things sent from heaven above...

We thank thee,

Lord.

Wisdom and Riches: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Readings:

Wisdom 7:7–11

Psalms 90:12–17

Hebrews 4:12–13

Mark 10:17–30

The rich young man in today's Gospel wants to know what we all want to know—how to live in this life so that we might live forever in the world to come. He seeks what today's Psalm calls "wisdom of heart." He learns that the wisdom he seeks is not a program of works to be performed or behaviors to be avoided. As Jesus tells him, observing the commandments is essential to walking the path of salvation—but it can only get us so far. The Wisdom of God is not precepts, but a person—Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Wisdom whose Spirit was granted to Solomon in today's First Reading. Jesus is the Word of God spoken of in today's Epistle. And Jesus, as He reveals Himself to the rich man today, is God. In Jesus we encounter Wisdom, the living and effective Word of God. As He does with the rich man today, He looks upon each of us with love. That look of love, that loving gaze, is a personal invitation—to give up everything to follow Him. Nothing is concealed from His gaze, as we hear in the Epistle. In His fiery eyes, the thoughts of our hearts are exposed, and each of us must render an account of our lives (see Revelation 1:14). We must have the attitude of Solomon, preferring Wisdom to all else, loving Him more than even life itself. This preference, this love, requires a leap of faith. We will be persecuted for this faith, Jesus tells His disciples today. But we must trust in His promise—that all good things will come to us in His company. What, then, are the "many possessions" that keep us from giving ourselves totally to God? What are we clinging to—material things, comfort zones, relationships? What will it take for us to live fully for Christ's sake and the sake of the Gospel? Let us pray for the wisdom to enter into the kingdom of God. With the Psalmist, let us ask Him, "Teach us."

FAMILY OF FAITH CASE STATEMENT

Our parish Family of Faith case statement originally made reference to a goal of installing a ramp outside the parish office door along Markanna Drive. However, it was discovered in the process that it does not conform to the zoning by-law and cannot be installed. We are now in immediate need of a new heating system and would like to install air conditioning for the church and hall at the same time. Therefore, we are revising our Family of Faith case statement to be able to use the Family of Faith funds for this purpose. Therefore, the revised case statement would remove the reference to the office door ramp and insert the goal of installing new heating and air conditioning systems. It will read as follows:

Our Parish Goal: $505,000 - Amount Pledged: $422,716 (84% of goal). St. Boniface parish is a strong and energetic faith-filled community. Thanks to our parishioners we run many programs and grow together as a family of faith. With the funds that we receive from the Family of Faith campaign, we will purchase a new security system for the rectory, church and church grounds to maintain overall parishioner safety and protect our church property. Additionally, we will paint the interior of our church, which is in need of a fresh coat of paint. We will begin annual parish retreats, which will help us in faith formation and spiritual development as well as unify our parish family. We will also install new heating and air conditioning systems in the church to provide heat and cooling on a four-season basis for all church and parish functions. We look forward to this exciting phase of our parish and archdiocese, remembering that we are family - brothers and sisters in Christ!

We are planning to install the new systems next Spring/Summer, so that the new heating system will be in place in time for the Fall of 2022.

Thank you for your continued support to our Parish.

With Prayers,
Fr. Peter

Family of Faith
