Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees

Every year the WDMR is the last Sunday of September, this year it is celebrated on September 25. As the title for his annual message, the Holy Father has chosen "Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees".

(Extract from Pope Francis' statement on Buidling the Future with Migrants and Refugees)

"Here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come." (Heb 13:14)

Dear brothers and sisters!

The ultimate meaning of our "journey" in this world is the search for our true homeland, the Kingdom of God inaugurated by Jesus Christ, which will find its full realization when he comes in glory. His Kingdom has not yet been brought to fulfilment, though it is already present in those who have accepted the salvation he offers us. "God's Kingdom is in us. Even though it is still eschatological, in the future of the world and of humanity, at the same time it is found in us.

Building the future with migrants and refugees also means recognizing and valuing how much each of them can contribute to the process of construction. I like to see this approach to migration reflected in a prophetic vision of Isaiah, which considers foreigners not invaders or destroyers, but willing labourers who rebuild the walls of the new Jerusalem, that Jerusalem whose gates are open to all peoples (cf. Is 60:10-11).

- Pope Francis

The Church has been celebrating the World Day of Migrants and Refugees (WDMR) since 1914. It is always an occasion to express concern for different vulnerable people on the move; to pray for them as they face many challenges; and to increase awareness about the opportunities that migration offers.
