To Love and Serve

In the Gospel for this Sunday, we hear that Jesus went to the mother-in-law of Peter, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her, and she began to serve them. Interestingly, if it was the fever, we would think that Jesus would have laid His hand on her head to cure her fever, yet He took her hand. Seems like the fever is just a symptom. There could probably be a fire burning within that is consuming all her joy and happiness in life. In other words, life had become like a lousy job, having to always give, give, give and being taken for granted, always having to be around the house to make sure things are provided for and yet not a word of thanks. But Jesus came to heal that. So, when Jesus took her by the hand, the fever left her.

That could also be our complaint about life. As the fire burns and consumes within, we become dissatisfied about our jobs, unhappy about our family and relationships, unsure about the present and uncertain about the future. Yes, life has become like a lousy job. But just as Jesus cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another and cast out many demons, He also want to do the same for us. Jesus came to confront our suffering and pain and to cast out the demons of selfishness, greed, pride, unfaithfulness and disobedience so that we will realise that life is not like a lousy job. Jesus wants to take us by the hand so to raise us to life so that we can love and serve.

God calls us to a life of love and service. Therefore, let us first stretch out our hand and let Jesus take us by the hand to lead us to that quiet place of prayer where He will heal us and drive away those demons and turn that consuming fire within into a flame of love and service. Conversion begins by first being with God in prayer, and only then, can we be of love and service to others. God is calling us to repentance and conversion, so that He can give us a life to be lived in love and service.

Our reflection is: are we ready to do God's will to love and serve others?
