MISSION APPEAL: AUGUST 13TH AND 14TH

Reverend Raju Pilla will speak at all masses about the works and needs of the Latin Archdiocese of Trivandrum in India. Trivandrum has about 270,000 Catholics. 90% of the people are traditional fishermen who depend on fishing for their livelihood and 10% are farmers and recent converts from low caste Hindus. Unemployment and poverty are rampant in this community. The Archdiocese depends on outside assistance to support its clergy, seminarians and catechists and to continue its spiritual, educational and economic development program. Progress is continuing to find ongoing assistance for the poorest students in two High Schools established after the devastation of the tsunami. Let us offer our prayerful and financial support to these urgent needs.
