Happy Father's Day!

We praise and thank God for:

Fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.

Fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support.

Fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives.

Fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life.

Fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.

Fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Those who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Those who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

The men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.

Fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

Prayer of Kirk Loadman adapted by Debra Mooney, PhD, Xavier University

National Indigenous Peoples Day

Saturday June 21

For generations, many Indigenous peoples (First Nations, Inuit, and Métis) and their communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on June 21 or around that time of year because of the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year. National Aboriginal Day, which is now National Indigenous Peoples Day, was announced in 1996 by then Governor General of Canada, Roméo LeBlanc.

Prayer for Healing and Reconciliation

*O Blessed Virgin,
Our Lady of Guadalupe,
Intercede for us with your Son,
that we who live in this land, Indigenous and non-Indigenous together may experience healing and reconciliation, on a renewed journey for justice and peace for our children.
Mother of the Church, pray for us.*
