Happy Father's Day!

We praise and thank God for:

- Fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.
- Fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.
- Fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support.
- Fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives.
- Fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life.
- Fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.
- Fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.
- Those who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.
- Those who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.
- The men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children.
- Fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

*Prayer of Kirk Loadman adapted by Debra Mooney, PhD
