"He who refreshes others will be refreshed"Proverbs 11:25*God Trusts You

There is truly a mystery in this world about how evil is allowed to play itself out in our lives. In the Book of Job, God lets evil have its day now, but with the firm assurance that only God is God, and only God is in ultimate control. God trusts in Job, saying, "That's my servant Job, and he trusts me. You can take away all his possessions, do anything you like, but at the end Job will trust me." And, ultimately, Job does trust, and everything he has lost is restored a hundredfold.

God also trusts you... and God is saying, "That's my servant Tom--he's not going to abandon his faith in me. That's my beloved, Marilyn--she's not going to give up on my love." Put your own name in there; God is saying to each one of us, "I trust you, and I know you trust me."

God trusts us to keep faith even while we live through the evil in this world. The "Passion of Jesus" means his lifelong passion for justice and love for the poor and the suffering. It's the whole record of the many thousands of ways Jesus loved the unloveable, demanded justice for women, picked up the suffering from the dust and healed them, brought the dead to life.

When we love the unloveable, listen to the "unlistenable", demand justice for the oppressed, comfort the suffering, and heal the ill and broken-hearted, we, too, join God in desiring the healing and salvation of all the world. And as you probably have discovered by now—doing these things will be hard, tiring, painful, but also fulfilling to our souls, as it was for Jesus. That is only the logical conclusion of our commitment to God's love.

As you choose to serve God by passionately bringing love into the world, do not be afraid of suffering or even dying in God's service. Trust God, because God is trusting you--to live out your passion.

Go in peace to love and serve our God!

Working wonders for young mothers...

"I love my daughter with all my heart, and that makes me a good mother, but all of the support and education I've received from Rose of Sharon has made me a great mother," says Lisa. She has also been given all the information and tools to have a healthy relationship with her daughter's father, and everyone else in her life. As far as her career dreams... she will be graduating high school this year and beginning an advanced college diploma in Fashion Business Management. Since Lisa became part of the Rose of Sharon community her life is back in the right direction and things are actually falling into place. "Not bad for two years and one little phone call". ShareLife agencies provided counselling, support and community education to more than 6,200 young people last year – offering personal and group counselling to 1,705 pregnant youth and young mothers who turned to them for help.

We Enter into Holy Week

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week leading up to the Easter Triduum. This is the last week of preparation for our elect and candidates in the RCIA process. They will enter into the Easter Triduum celebrating the richness of our solemn liturgies in the three days.

As part of the Triduum preparations, on Tuesday of Holy Week, The Mass of Chrism will be celebrated at St. Michael's Cathedral. The Mass of Chrism gathers the faithful of the diocese and it acknowledges the ministry of priests, inviting them to renew their commitment of service and to receive the prayers and support of the people. During this Mass, Cardinal Collins will bless the oil of catechumens (used on adults during Baptism for initiation into the Church), the oil of the sick, and the oil of Chrism (used in the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders). These oils will be presented in each parish at the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday evening. They are to form an important part of the sacramental life of our communities during the year and during the Easter Vigil in the sacraments of initiation.

Let us continue to pray for our elect and candidates during this last week of preparation before their initiation and reception into the Church at the Easter Vigil.
