DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Poor Thomas! One moment of disbelief earned him a reputation that has stayed with him throughout the centuries: Doubting Thomas. And who can blame him for doubting? Would I respond much differently if someone claimed to have seen a dead person who was now mysteriously alive? Likely not. In today's Gospel, though, we realize that Thomas 'the doubter' was also the first of the disciples to voice the truth about who Jesus really is – both Lord and God. From that moment, he went on to share this truth for more than three decades, travelling as far away as India, where he eventually died a martyr's death. So what happened to change him? Quite simply, Thomas came face to face with the One who reached out to him with such love and compassion that he became willing to die for what he believed. No longer was Jesus' resurrection second-hand information. Now Thomas has experienced the Risen Christ for himself. Each time we gather to celebrate Eucharist, we too come face to face with the Risen Christ. Our faith in the real presence tells us that. Our lives, like Thomas's can and should be changed each time we celebrate Eucharist. Today we pray that we who receive the Body of Christ may in turn become the Body of Christ for our world.
