OUR SPIRITUAL JOURNEYThe Good Shepherd

Jesus as the Good Shepherd is always a theme of the Fourth Sunday of Easter (known as Good Shepherd Sunday). In today's gospel, Jesus stresses that He and the Father work together in the work of keeping safe the sheep entrusted to His care ("The Father and I are one").

The Father and Jesus work together for the salvation of the world, for the sheep of the flock. They are one in this and no power can thwart God's saving plan being worked out by Jesus, the Good Shepherd. What must always be kept in mind is that this saving design is accomplished through a relationship of great intimacy between Jesus and His disciples, the sheep of His flock ("I give them eternal life, and they will never perish"). It is an intimacy akin to Jesus' intimacy with the Father, always open to hearing the Father's will ("My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me").
