SITTING WITH SCRIPTURE

How eloquent if the lament of Jesus when looking at the people, who for three days had followed Him and were anxious to hear His divine words, as He said: "My heart is moved with pity for this crowd. They have left their homes, have interrupted their work, and have even neglected to bring along some food – all on account of Me! I cannot send them home without giving them something to eat. We hear the disciples asking Jesus to send the crowd away so that they may go the villages and buy food. Jesus, however, will listen to none of this: "They need not go away; you give them something to eat" (Mt. 14:16). "Give them something to eat! We have only five loaves and a couple of fish" (cf. Mt. 14-17). This was all He wanted to hear. Jesus then ordered the crowd to sit down on the grass. He looked up to heaven, blessed and broke the food before Him, and told the disciples to start distributing it to the people. Wonder of wonders! Everyone ate their fill. And then they gathered up the fragments – twelve baskets full of fragments! Now then, those five loaves and two fishes make seven items in all. Some of the Fathers of the Church see in this number "seven" the seven sacraments which Jesus instituted and wants to give to you and me through the hands of His disciples, the priests of today. The twelve baskets of fragments can be figures of the sacramentals which are used in our Church to help us on our way towards heaven. Jesus felt compassion for the crowd that day. He has felt compassion for the crowd throughout the centuries. He feels compassion for all of us in this modern day and age. He did a marvelous thing in feeding that large number of persons. He does a most marvelous thing today, as He feeds millions with both material and spiritual food. His divine Providence provides all that we need. Our gratitude to the compassionate heart of Jesus should be expressed all the days of our life. We can thank Him with all our hearts by following Him faithfully, as did the crowd on that day, long ago.

Catholic Missions in Canada

On August 3rd, our second collection will be for Catholic Missions in Canada. Established in 1908, as The Catholic Church Extension Society, this organization provides financial support to Catholic missionaries – priests, sisters, brothers and lay people – whose lives are dedicated to proclaiming the blessings of the Catholic faith throughout the poorest regions in Canada. In 2014, we will need over $3 million in funds for more than 600 projects in 23 Mission Dioceses affecting the lives of an estimated 606,000 Catholics across Canada. To find out more about Catholic Missions In Canada call 416 934-3424 or toll-free 1 866 937-2642 or visit our website at www.cmic.info. Envelopes can be obtained in the Gathering Space.
