MASS MINUTES

The Liturgy of the Eucharist-The Eucharistic Prayer-The Narrative of the Institution

The Narrative of Institution is the climax of the consecration in the Roman Liturgy and most clearly expresses the character of the Mass. The narrative begins when the priest says, "On the night before He died..." From here he proceeds to repeat the words of the Gospel (Matt26; Mark 14) "He took bread... and said, TAKE THIS ALL OF YOU, AND EAT IT, THIS IS MY BODY, WHICH IS GIVEN UP FOR YOU." It is important to note here the specific words which the priest uses. Referring to Christ, the priest does not say, "This is His Body", because he speaks as Christ Himself. Christ Himself, acting through the priest, is the one who makes Himself present transforming the offerings of bread and wine at every Mass just as He did at the Last Supper. Indeed, His action at the Last Supper so transcends time and space that it is the very same action that He performed at the Last Supper that occurs at every Mass. So whenever one receives the Eucharist at Mass, one receives it from Christ just as the Apostles did at the Last Supper. Two important sets of words in the Narrative are, "GIVEN UP FOR YOU" and "SHED FOR YOU AND FOR ALL SO THAT SINS MAY BE FORGIVEN." These words point to the sacrificial aspect of the Eucharist and the intimate connection between the Last Supper and the Crucifixion. The gift that Christ gave in the Last Supper and continues to give in Mass is of His Body and Blood sacrificed on the cross in atonement for our sins. Christ's Body and Blood as sacrificed on Good Friday were already present at the Last Supper the previous day. Both the miracle of the transformation of the bread and wine and the action of Christ offering Himself on the Cross are present in the Mass and expressed in the Narrative of Institution. The Last Supper and the Crucifixion are more than historical events. They are present events going on whenever and wherever the Mass is celebrated. The final words of the Narrative are the basis for the celebration of the Mass and Institution of the Eucharist as a Sacrament to be perpetuated through the Church, "DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME." The Church obeys this command whenever she offers Mass.
