MASS MINUTES

Liturgy of the Eucharist – The Eucharistic Prayer

The Eucharistic Prayer is “the centre and summit of the entire celebration” of the Mass. It is a prayer of thanksgiving and sacrifice. The whole prayer is addressed to God the Father “through Jesus Christ in the Holy Spirit. The priest offers the prayer as Christ, giving thanks and praise to the Father in union with the faithful who by careful attention and silence join in the prayer of the priest giving thanks and praise to God.” Each Sunday and feast day has its own Preface, a prayer that begins with the invocation “Father All-Powerful and Ever-living God, we do well...to give you thanks...”. The Preface prayer gives thanks for the week of salvation or some aspect of it appropriate to the liturgical season or feast day. It serves also to introduce the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy). In response to the priest’s prayer of thanksgiving on behalf of the faithful, the faithful join with the priest, usually chanting or singing the Sanctus. The Sanctus itself, recollects Christ’s triumphal entry into Jerusalem that the Church commemorates on Palm (Passion) Sunday when the crowds shouted out “Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord” (Matthew 21:9). These words fittingly associate this early portion of the Eucharistic Prayer with the Sacrifice that is about to take place. For Christ entered Jerusalem in order that He might there perform the actions that the Holy Mass makes present. Following the Sanctus the priest may proceed to offer one of several Eucharistic Prayers approved by the church.

Something to think about...

When you hear the Sanctus “Holy, Holy, Holy” think about the story of when Christ rode into Jerusalem. Imagine the crowds around Him chanting this while they laid palms in front of Him.

St. Michael’s Cathedral Temporary Closure

St. Michael’s Cathedral, mother church of the Archdiocese of Toronto, is temporarily closing its doors as part of its extensive restoration efforts that have been ongoing for the past three years. The next phase of restoration will require its closure full-time to allow for work that will preserve the cathedral for years to come. Daily Mass will continue to be celebrated in St. John’s Chapel, a small worship space accessible from 200 Church Street. Nearby, St. Paul’s Basilica will provide additional weekend Masses beginning in July, featuring music from St. Michael’s Choir School to accommodate the cathedral closure.

Part of the closure timeline is:

Mid-Dec 2015-Jan.2016 – cathedral will open briefly pre/post Christmas.
Mar. 2016 – Sept. 2016 – cathedral will open prior to Holy Week and Easter, remaining open while work continues through Sept. 2016.

Holy Land Christian Families

"On behalf of the Christians in the Holy Land they very much appreciate your help by purchasing their olive woodcrafts. Your help has made a difference for many families in Bethlehem and surrounding areas. Words cannot express how thankful they are for the opportunity you gave them to display their religious woodcrafts at Holy Martyrs of Japan Parish. Please keep the Christians in the Holy Land in your prayers as you are always in theirs."
