BUILT UPON ROCK

Our Lord shows a special love for those who put their heart into serving Him in everything, every day, thereby expressing in deeds the words and desires of their conversation with God. This is true prayer. For Jesus declares, in the Gospel of today's Mass: Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord', shall enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but he who does the Will of my Father. <sup>Matt 7:21-27</sup> On that occasion He was speaking to many who had turned prayer into a mere recital of words and formulae totally unrelated to their behaviour. Our conversation with Christ has got to be different.

Your prayer, your call of 'Lord, Lord' should be linked in a thousand different ways throughout the day to a desire and an effective effort to fulfill the Will of God. <sup>J. Escriva, The Forge, 358</sup>

In Sacred Scripture we see how God loves and blessed the person who seeks to be identified in everything they do with the divine Will: I have found in David the Son of Jesse a man after my hearts, who will do all my Will. <sup>Acts 13:22</sup> And Saint John writes: The world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the Will of God abides forever. <sup>1 John 2:17</sup> Jesus Himself declares that His food is to do the Will of His Father and finish the work He gave Him to do. <sup>John 4:34</sup> This is what matters; this is what the sanctification of our duties means: doing His Will, becoming what He wants us to be. <sup>St. Therese of Lisieux, Autobiography of a Soul.</sup>

What is His Will then: to be charitable and truthful to people we meet that day and to approach them with a hopeful and faithful disposition. Also we pray to the Lord saying to Him, "What do you wish me to do in this situation?" Lord, I want to do only what you want me to do and wish that my life were to be the fulfillment of your Will in everything, so that I could say, as you said, in big things and in small: my food, what gives meaning to my life, is to do the Will of my Father God.

In Conversation with God by Francis Fernandez

TAIZE PRAYER

Saturday, March 26th after the 5:00pm Mass

Please come and join us in prayer, song and devotion to peace and justice through prayer and meditation and holding oneself in a presence and letting Christ, through the Holy Spirit, pray in us.

Living Lent

Purpose of Lent today: Lent is a time of prayer and penance, when Christ wants to lead us back to our baptismal promises of dying to sin and of living for God. We prepare ourselves to enter once again into Jesus' Paschal mystery and to renew it in our lives.

Our Lord: Jesus invited us to follow him by carrying our cross with him each day. <sup>(Luke 9:23)</sup> He indicated that his followers would fast and do penance after he returned to heaven. <sup>(Luke 5:33 35)</sup> We are to go hungry and thirsty for the sake of justice <sup>(Matthew 5:6)</sup> and to do our praying, fasting and almsgiving without showing off. <sup>(Matthew 6:1 6, 16 17)</sup>

Christians: From the earliest centuries, Jesus' followers have tried to follow these commands. Since it was on a Friday that Jesus freely died to save us from our sins, the faithful made a special effort to do some form of penance on this day: going without food for most of the day, spending extra time in prayer, doing good works, refraining from eating meat. Like St. Paul, they wanted to offer their penances for Christ's body, the Church. <sup>(Colossians 1:24)</sup>

In today's Church: Over the centuries, these forms of penance have varied, and sometimes have been neglected. Today, we are being invited once more to obey our Saviour: we are to do penance for our sins and those of others, for the people of God, for peace in the world, and for the building up of God's kingdom on earth. So to make Lent an effective time of renewal for the great celebration of Easter, let us commit ourselves to the practices of Lent.

Praying: Jesus and His apostles tell us to pray always, to be constant in prayer. Traditional times for Christians to pray are morning, evening and mealtimes. Personal prayer is a necessary preparation for our sharing in the Church's public worship, the liturgy. In our love, we join Jesus and all God's people in praying for ourselves, for our family and friends, for our leaders, for those who suffer, and for the Church and the world.

Fasting: Fasting means cutting down on the amount and richness of our food and drink. Done as a penance for sin, it helps us to pray better: an empty stomach can lead to more attentive prayer. The money we save on food should be given to others in alms. The law of fasting obliges adults until they are 60 years old.

Abstinence: This form of penance needs to be seen as a near cousin of fasting. We may give up meat especially on Fridays, the day of Christ's saving death on the cross. Our abstinence is another way of sharing in Christ's work of saving the world. We may also substitute other good actions for abstinence from meat. These could include special acts of charity (visiting the sick or aged, helping those in any need, contributing time or money to a work of charity) or other acts of piety.

Giving alms: We give alms to help God's poor and to support the good works of the Church and other positive agencies. Again our help is being given to Christ in His brothers and sisters. Blessed Teresa of Calcutta when asked how much to give "give until your can feel it". We do not give in order to show off or keep up with others; instead we give cheerfully to God, who has given us everything we have.

Excerpts from the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops

PARISH OFFERING ENVELOPES

The Parish Offering Envelopes will be moved upstairs to the Church Lobby for the next few weeks as a lot of parishioners can't make it to the Parish Office during office hours. There are still a lot of envelopes to be picked up. If you do not know or remember your envelope number ask for one of the clergy for assistance as there is a binder in the Sacristy which is in alphabetical order by name. Look up your name and locate your box number. If you do not have a box of offering envelopes, there are new numbers available. Please fill out the New Parishioner Form at the counter in the Lobby with the new number indicated on form and give to one of the parish staff members or place information card in your first envelope you use.

Thank You from Father Boniface and the Office Staff.
