THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

At the Last Supper, Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, "Lord, how can it be that you will reveal yourself to us and not to the world?" Jesus answered him "Whoever loves me will obey my teachings, my Father will love them and my Father and I will come to them and live with them" (Jn 14:22-23)

God – the Father, Son and Holy Spirit – dwells in our soul in grace not only with a presence of immensity, as He is to be found in everything, but in a special way through sanctifying grace. ^{Cf St. Thomas, Summa Theologiae, 1, q43, a4} This new presence fills the soul that travels along the paths of sanctity with love, and with an indescribable joy. Indeed, it is there, in the central depths of the soul, that we must accustom ourselves to seeking God, in every one of life's situations, whether it be out in the street, at sport or whilst we are relaxing. O, then, exclaimed Saint John of the Cross, most beautiful soul who dost so much desire to know the place where your Beloved is in order to seek him and to be united with him. He tells you now that you yourself are the abode wherein He dwells.

This revelation that God made as though in loving confidence, amazed the first Christians and filled their hearts with peace and supernatural joy. When we are convinced of this supernatural reality – that God, One and Three, dwells within us as individuals we nourish it with constant attention, (prayer and devotion) and protect it, lest sin separate us from this divine presence and strengthen it by the Sacraments that God has given us especially reconciliation and the Eucharist. We turn our lives, with all their troubles, and perhaps even because of such troubles, into a foretaste of Heaven: it is like entering into God's inmost being and knowing and loving the divine life, of which we become sharers.

The whole of a Christian's supernatural life is directed towards this knowledge of and intimate conversation with the Trinity, who become eventually the fruit and the end of our whole life. ^{St. Thomas, Commentary on Book VI of the Sentence,} ^{1, d2, q1} It is for this end that we have been created and raised to the supernatural order: to know, to talk to and to love God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, who dwell in the soul in grace.

RENEW YOUR COMMITMENT WITH TWICE THE IMPACT!

If you have made a contribution to ShareLife in the past but weren't able to do so last year, you can double the effect of your gift this year. Through the ShareLife Community Challenge, a generous donor has pledged to match all new and increased gifts to the 2010 ShareLife Campaign, up to a total of $500,000. As a lapsed donor, your gift to ShareLife will also be matched dollar-for-dollar this year. For example, your $60 donation will result in a $60 matching gift, resulting in a $120 contribution to ShareLife funded agencies. Please help us sustain the good work of the ShareLife funded agencies – last year more than 225,000 people were touched by ShareLife funding here at home, and countless more received assistance around the world.

For more information, visit www.sharelife.org.

Please give generously. You can work WONDERS!
