COUNCIL OF JERUSALEM

As the Easter season draws to a close, the focus shifts from the Risen Lord Jesus to the Holy Spirit who will come upon the Church at Pentecost. In the Gospel, Jesus speaks of the imminent coming of the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, who will "teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you".

However, the Holy Spirit's role of "reminding" disciples of Jesus' teaching should not be understood as simply a case of the Spirit causing the Church to recollect Jesus' words. Rather, it also implies the Holy Spirit's role in assisting the community of the Lord to understand how the teaching of Jesus bears on the new circumstances that surface and need to be addressed as the Church strives to keep alive the memory of Jesus in each generation.

This, in fact, is the Holy Spirit's role at what has been called the Council of Jerusalem. There a debate took place about what was necessary for salvation: namely, whether circumcision and the observance of the Jewish ritual laws implied by it were prerequisites to belonging to the community of God's elect, or whether faith in Christ and baptism sufficed for salvation.

The first reading from Acts, gives the gist of the problem and the solution reached.

Addressing the issue, Peter recounted how God had poured out the Holy Spirit on the Gentiles through his ministry, cleansing their hearts by faith. Therefore, He argued, they should no longer be considered unclean or unworthy to enter God's presence in worship, as some former Jews were suggesting.

Based on their discussions, they decided that only four items regarding Jewish practices was necessary. The first three involved meat sacrificed to idols 1) that you abstain from what have been sacrificed to idols 2) from blood and 3) from what is strangled.

The fourth dealt with illicit sex, "fornication" (in Greek, porneia), which has been interpreted in two ways: 1) as avoiding marriages within degrees of kinship forbidden to Jews (taking this view, the New American Bible translates porneia as "unlawful marriages") and 2) as referring to ordinary sexual immorality, for which the pagans were often criticized by Jews in antiquity.

New Testament writings frequently challenged pagan converts to change their sexual behaviour, which included fornication, adultery, prostitution and homosexual practices. Christian morality in the New Testament era was just as countercultural as it is to popular morality today.

Periodically in its history, the Church has convened in council – designated as an "ecumenical" or "worldwide" assembly – to invoke the Spirit's guidance in facing new issues that have arisen or the Pope who holds the deposit of faith has asked for the Spirit's guidance. In prayer before major decisions so has every worthy Priest and Bishop. And this too should be the pattern of every believer of Christ.

Prayer of the Faithful – Catholic Education Week May 5th to 10th, 2013

We invite all parishioners to join in celebrating Catholic Education Week 2013, which runs from May 5-10. For more than 160 years, Ontario's publicly funded Catholic schools have been integrating our faith into all aspects of school life, empowering one another to serve as faithful disciples. We celebrate the distinctive contribution that Catholic schools make, giving thanks and offering our prayers for all those who diligently nurture this precious gift. For more information about Catholic Education Week or to find your local school board, visit goodnewsforall.ca or call the Archdiocese of Toronto online at: www.archtoronto.org
