AROUND THE ALTAR OF THE LORD

The Vestments of the Priest and the Altar

Looking at the Priest during Mass, one will notice that he wears a flowing vestment (often beautifully embroidered) of a particular colour. The colour of this vestment, call a chasuble, varies according to the day and season of the Liturgical year. Purple is a penitential colour and is worn during the seasons of Advent and Lent, which are seasons of preparation for the great Feast of Christmas and Easter. The faithful prepare themselves for these Feasts remembering the call of St. John the Baptist, "Repent, for the Kingdom of God is at hand." During the Christmas and Easter Seasons, the priest wears a white chasuble because white is the symbol of joy and the Church during these seasons commemorates the great joy that these events bring to the world. White is also the colour of the vestments on the feast days of Saints who were not martyrs, recalling the fact that they have entered into the joy made possible by the Incarnation and the Resurrection that they believed and professed on earth. On the middle Sundays of Advent and Lent, the vestments are rose coloured, a mix between purple and white, because on those days the Church celebrates with a tempered joy that the great Feast being prepared for is soon to come. Red vestments are used on Pentecost, recalling the Holy Spirit coming upon the Apostles in the form of fire. The feasts of martyrs are also red, because they gave up their blood for Christ and, in the words of the Apocalypse. "Washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the lamb" (Apocalypse 7:14). At Masses for the dead and All Souls' Day the priest traditionally wears black vestments recalling the subject of death and reminding the faithful to pray for the souls in purgatory to be released from the darkness where they cannot yet behold the face of God and be welcome into his light. White is sometimes worn at funeral masses recalling the resurrection of the body. During the remaining time through the year, the vestments are green. Green symbolizes the hopefulness with which the Church acts.

ANNOUNCEMENTS from the ARCHBISHOP of TORONTO*LET A CHILD HAVE FAITH IN YOU

Each year in the Catholic community, there are hundreds of children that need to leave their family home and be placed in foster care. At any given time, there are more than 1,100 children and youth unable to live with their parents due to parental illness, abandonment, child abuse or neglect. The Catholic Children's Aid Society of Toronto depends on loving foster families to provide safe and nurturing homes for these vulnerable children and youth.

Sadly, there are not enough foster homes to accommodate these children in the Greater Toronto area. In the words of Archbishop Thomas Collins: "I strongly believe that more Catholic families would be open to caring for foster children if they were aware of this urgent need for foster homes."

I am inviting you to seriously consider fostering, and reflect on the benefit the experience can bring to your family and vulnerable children in the community."

The CCAS continues to work with parishes to recruit foster homes through its Let a Child Have Faith in You campaign. If you would like more information about making a difference in the life of a child through fostering, please contact the CCAS at 416-395-1590 or visit:

www.ccas.toronto.on.ca.

COMMUNICATION to our FAITH COMMUNITY*Regarding the H1N1 FLU VIRUS

The faithful should be instructed that if they feel ill, have a fever, or have been sick in recent days, they certainly should not receive communion on the tongue or from the cup. Of course, if you are really ill, please stay home.

The Sign of Peace is an important part of our liturgical celebration. The usual custom is to express the Sign of Peace by shaking hands. It may, however, be preferable, especially in our present circumstances, to use another gesture, for example, by bowing and perhaps saying "Peace be with you". A full letter (pink copies) from the Archdiocese can be found at the back of the Church along with sanitization gel.

BRADFORD COMMUNITY DINNER RAFFLE

The Bradford Community Dinner provides a delicious healthy meal for about 40 people in need every Friday evening at Trinity Anglican Church. The volunteers come from various churches and from the community at large. Most of the volunteer support has come from Trinity Anglican church and our church, Holy Martyrs of Japan. Many of the team leaders and cooks and helpers are familiar faces in our pews. All of the money to support this meal comes from donations.

Next week, volunteers will be selling tickets to a raffle to raise money for this worthwhile endeavour after each Mass. The tickets are $2 each or three for $5, and the prizes are the basics we all need - cash, grocery vouchers or gas vouchers. Please support the community dinner next weekend.

CHATS – Volunteers Needed!

CHATS – Community Home Assistance to Seniors – is a local non-profit organization that provides support and programs for seniors to enable them to continue to live independently, such as meals, transportation, personal support services and light housekeeping. A pilot program has been launched for residents of Bradford and east Gwillimbury and Georgina to provide a home adaptation and maintenance service, including services such as installing ramps or doing leaf raking and snow removal. We are currently seeking volunteers in the Bradford area to support our Transportation, Meals on Wheels, Wellness and Telephone Reassurance programs. Flexible times are available. If you have a few hours a week to assist at this program, please call Christine at 1-877-755-3494. If you are interested in using the services provided by CHATS, please call 1-877-452-4287.

Quote from the Saint of the Week

Be sure that you first preach by the way you live.
