DO NOT POSTPONE GOOD WORKS

Today we read in Mark's Gospel about the dangers of being avaricious and foolish in the use of God's gifts. God-given wisdom is helping the poor with the overflow of worldly goods in our hands. The kingdom of God will not be won by lip-service only. Concrete, charitable actions are needed now, before it is too late. With an open and joyful heart, we should, if we can, help others when the need is urgent, and not put off our act of charity till later, thus causing extra suffering which a later action cannot remedy.

A lady in a small town was told about a very poor family that needed some clothing for the baby, and was asked if she cared to help. Her immediate answer was: "Of course, send the mother to the local department store to get what is needed, and have then send the bill to me". This lady found the opportunity of storing for herself treasure in heaven.

The young man in the Gospel had been impressed by what Jesus had said and done. He then asked the "Good Teacher" what to do in order to gain everlasting life, and Jesus told him to keep the ten commandments. "Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days" (Mk 10-20). ** Our Lord then offered to include him among His very special followers: "There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me" (Mk 10-21). ** But the young man turned around and left "for he had many possessions."

Throughout the history of the Church, many men and women have taken the words of Jesus literally by renouncing worldly goods with the vow of poverty. St. Francis of Assisi left his parents, a comfortable home, and a promising career in order to dedicate himself freely and completely to work that is expected of an intimate follower of Christ.

But God in His own wise way does not issue the same call to everyone. Some are called to serve Him from a monastery; others from their own homes in the world. The various states in human society have been established by God. Each one – be he a doctor, teacher, lawyer, soldier, housewife – has his or her special function to perform; and God grants all the graces necessary for each one's calling.
