ONE WHO SERVES

The words of Isaiah in the First Reading give a clear-cut picture of Jesus in His sufferings for mankind: "By His knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous; and he shall bear the iniquities" (Is 53:11).

The Gospel of St. Mark could serve as continuation of the First Reading for it states clearly that "the Son of man also came to give His life as a ransom for many". (Mark 10:45) Jesus uttered these words after explaining to James and John that their request to sit one at His right hand the other at His left when He came into His glory could not be granted because those special places were reserved. Instead of looking for places of honour and distinction and trying to lord it over others, all twelve of the Apostles, as well as all followers of Christ, must become servants of those in need. They must begin by serving one another: "Whoever would be great among you must be your servant". (Mk 10:43) The Son of Man has not come to be served but to serve.

All faithful followers of Christ will offer acts of service, or love, in a variety of ways. They will alleviate the sufferings of others with their kind words, services, or material goods. They adore and thank God by observing the commandments, by contributing to the support of the Church and to other good purposes. It is an honour to give two or three hours now and then to clean the house of God, or to wash the linens. To repair a window, replace a faulty electric wire, or run some Church affair. The opportunities to serve and to love are countless.

From God's Message by Rev. Msgr. Vito C. Mazzone

Chalice Tanzania Mission

I would like to thank our Church community for their support with my mission with Chalice (Tancan) to Tanzania this past August. I was hoping to fill one large suitcase with 50lbs of items for the maternity clinic being established. Instead, I received 100lbs (2 large suitcases) of items, 95% of these donated by members of the Holy Martyrs of Japan Parish. (I put my personal belongings in my carry-on...needless to say, I learned quickly how to pack lightly). One suitcase was left at each of the two main sites we visited, and were gratefully received by the Parishes who were establishing the clinic, along with the other items the more than 20 participants brought with them.

Not only did we have babies delivered, but the doctors and team saw over 2000 men, women and children who received prenatal, postnatal, basic medical and dental care. My main purpose was to work in the HIV testing centre with a local government worker. It was heartbreaking at times, especially when a child tested positive, but also encouraging since now these people knew to go to the hospital to get the drugs that would help to keep them alive for years to come.

Our story was featured in the Catholic Register on Sept 16th. The article can be found at <http://www.catholicregister.org/new/international/item/15076-chalice-plants-its-roots-for-tanzanian-medical-mission>.

Thank You. I look forward to assisting with the Chalice presentations the weekend of November 3/4th.
