ADMIRE WHAT IS GOOD

It was St. John who said to Jesus: "Teacher, we saw a man casting our demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he was not following us". (Mk 9:38) And Jesus replied: "Do not forbid him, for he that is not against us is for us". (Mk 9:39,40)

As we call to mind the many Christians in the various denominations, our hearts yearn for the day when there will be oneness, or union, among us all, because after all, there is "one Lord, one faith, one baptism". (Eph 4:5) This was also our Lord's prayer at the Last Supper: "that they may be one even as we are one". (Jn 17:22)

In the meantime, far be it from us to condemn "our separated brothers". We admire their prayerful lives, their great love of the Master, their dedication in spreading the Good News, and their many acts of charity. If anyone is to be reprimanded, listen to St. James in today's Second Reading; as he condemns the wealthy for not storing up treasure in heaven.

Our lesson for today is this: We must always approve and admire the good actions of others, and we should try to correct, and never imitate, the conduct of those who displease both God and men. The material things that we have are all from God, and they should be used in such a way as to pay big dividends both here and hereafter. After all, it is not great possessions that make a man rich, but the good use of those things that make him truly rich. Wealth is only good when it is turned to good account. The day will come when God will say to us: "Turn in the account of your stewardship". (Lk 16:2)

COLLECTION for the NEEDS of the CHURCH in CANADA

Each year, Catholics are invited to collaborate with their Bishops through the annual Collection of the Needs of the Church in Canada. This collection is being held today in parishes across the country. Through 2012, many important events are taking place in the Church: the Synod of the Bishops of the New Evangelization, the canonization of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha, the 50th anniversary celebrations of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, as well as the launching of the Year of the Faith by Pope Benedict XVI. The Bishops of Canada are closely connected to all of these events, which are occasions to gather in united and communion. Your contribution to the Collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada will support the Bishops in their ministry to teach, sanctify and govern. The effectiveness of the Church's existing services to fulfill its mission in this world and provide spiritual leadership is involved. The Bishops of Canada thank you in advance for your generosity & your commitment to the Church, following Christ's example.

OUR FAMILY of SAINTS

For me, prayer is an upward leap of the heart, an untroubled glance towards heaven, a cry of gratitude and love which I utter from the depths of sorrow as well as from the heights of joy. It has a supernatural grandeur which expands the soul and unites it with God.
