SAINT OF THE WEEK*St. Francis XavierPatron of Catholic Missions, Goa & China

One of the greatest missionaries of all time, Francis studied in Paris where he met and was heavily influenced by St. Ignatius of Loyola. He was ordained a priest and together with Ignatius and companions, they founded the Society of Jesus (Jesuits). The men planned to convert non-believers in the Holy Land. Portuguese settlers in India at the time were losing their faith, and so the Pope sent the Jesuits to India instead. Francis led an extensive mission into India, Japan, Indonesia, and China, where he died. He overcame language barriers, interacting with over 7 different cultures. In his 11 years of missionary work, Francis baptized over 30,000 people, more than anyone else since the time of St. Paul. His body in Goa, India has remained incorrupt for over 500 years. His influence can be seen today in the many cultures that are part of our parish community.

St. Francis Xavier, pray for us!

THE NEW YEAR

The liturgical year that we are beginning also represents the journey for you to live once again the mystery of this faithfulness of God, on which we are called to found our lives, as on a firm rock. In celebrating and living this itinerary of faith with the whole Church, you will experience that Jesus Christ is the one Lord of the cosmos and of history, without whom every human project risks coming to nothing. The liturgy, lived in its true spirit, is always the fundamental school for living the Christian faith, a “theological” faith which involves you in your whole being — spirit, soul and body — to make you living stones in the edifice of the Church and collaborators of the New Evangelization. Especially in the Eucharist the living God makes himself so close that he becomes food that supports us on the journey, a presence that transforms us with the fire of his love.

We are living in a context in which we often come across indifference to God. However, I think that in the inner depths of all those who live far from God there is an inner longing for the infinite, for transcendence. It is your task to witness to the close God who also shows himself in the search for the truth, the soul of all intellectual commitment.

~ Pope Benedict XVI Saturday, 1 December 2012

*Pope Francis Prayer Intentions for December 2018Evangelization: In the Service of the Transmission of Faith

That people, who are involved in the service and transmission of faith, may find, in their dialogue with culture, a language suited to the conditions of the present time.
