CITIZENS OF THIS WORLD - AND THE NEXT

In today's Gospel reading from the Last Supper discourse in St. John, Our Lord gives us a new commandment: "Love one another as I have loved you".

As Catholics we know that we are called to become like our Lord in a way that goes far beyond the ordinary standards of this world. and yet we are called upon to begin to do so within this world. This would be impossible except for the power of God's grace in the Church's Sacraments.

Of course, very few of us actually get close to that kind of perfection in this life, yet that does not mean that we should give up trying. We are called to be citizens of heaven, "saints", as the Apostles put it in their New Testament letters to the early Christian congregations they had founded. Yet we also have to live out our Christian life in this world, too.

Together with all the parish clergy and staff, I wish you and your loved ones every blessing this Paschaltide. ~ Fr. Paul Dobson

SHARELIFE 2025

Your helping hand ensures that no one struggles alone.

No one is turned away from ShareLife-funded agencies due to inability to pay. You make it possible for individuals, couples, and families to access mental health services. Like Aimee, who grew up believing that life's challenges were meant to be faced alone. She searched for the strength to speak with a counsellor, but felt hopeless, imagining that her struggles would be dismissed. Financial concerns weighed heavily on her, making it even harder to reach out. Imagine the relief Aimee felt when she learned about the sliding scale payment system at Catholic Community Services of York Region (CCSYR). Because of you, Aimee received immediate care, free of judgement.

Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

I AM THE TRUE VINE AND YOU ARE THE BRANCHES,
SAYS THE LORD. WHOEVER REMAINS IN ME,
AND I IN HIM, BEARS FRUIT IN PLENTY. ALLELUIA.
