THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Tuesday, October 4th St. Francis of Assisi (1181 -1226) Patron saint of animals and ecology. Francis is one of the most venerated religious figures in history. He lived the high-spirited life typical of a wealthy young man. While going off to war in 1204, he had a vision that directed him back to Assisi, where he lost his taste for his worldly life and soon took up a life of poverty. His life of simplicity and service to the poor and sick, as well as his love of beauty converted many people to the faith.

Friday October 7th, Our Lady of the Rosary (also known as the feast of Our Lady of Victory) was instituted to honor The Blessed Virgin Mary for the Christian naval victory over the Turks at Lepanto on October 7, 1571. The Turks were battling to bring Europe under the Islamic Caliphate. Encouraged by Pope St. Pius 5th crew members on more than 200 ships prayed the Rosary in preparation for the battle and Christians throughout Europe gathered in their churches to invoke the Virgin Mary against the daunting Turkish forces. All but 13 of the nearly 300 Turkish ships were captured or sunk in a Christian victory considered by many to be miraculous.

Pope Francis Prayer Intentions for October 2016

Universal: That Journalists, in carrying out their work, may always be motivated by respect for truth and a strong sense of ethics.

Evangelization: That World Mission Day may renew within all Christian communities the joy of the Gospel and the responsibility to announce it.

Spiritual Work of Mercy: To Bear Wrongs Patiently

Jesus had much to say in regards to this spiritual work of mercy. His instruction to "turn the other cheek" is radically different than what the world and our own fallen nature want to do. Our instinct is to retaliate when someone hurts us. In our own minds, we believe we are "justified" in making sure the offender knows our "hurt" and experiences our revenge. What is even more controversial is when he goes even deeper: "But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you salute only your brethren, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

As followers of Christ we are called to restrain our inner tendencies and not "fight fire with fire," to seek the "high road" that leads to salvation. We need to examine those situations that entangle us in this fallen world: misunderstood motives, slights and insults, backbiting and gossip as well as our reaction to the random acts of violence and terror of our modern world. There may be occasions where it is appropriate or even necessary to set the record straight but wisdom is required to know when to speak and when to keep silent. Forgiveness does not mean that one should invite continual abuse and mistreatment as a form of false piety--it doesn't promote people submitting to constant danger and abuse.

Patience and passion come from a Latin word meaning to suffer or endure. Patience is rooted in a reality at the core of our faith: the Passion of Christ. Patience is by its nature a passive quality, a matter of putting up with something. But Christ has turned the word passion from the passive to the active voice: his Passion was ultimately something not done to him, but something he did: "No one takes my life from me, but I lay it down of my own accord" (Jn 10:18). The alchemy that transformed Christ's suffering into something positive was love: love for the Father and love for us.

Unquestionably, our role model in this area is Our Lord, Jesus Christ. It was Jesus who bore Pilate's mental and physical abuse without saying a word of defense or without making a single gesture to stop them -- even though he was accused of crimes he had not committed. Instead he endured wrongs by praying for those who injured Him. In His Passion and Death, Jesus taught the lesson that more violence is not the proper response to violence. He showed by example a healthier approach which is to bear wrongs patiently instead of inflicting "an eye for an eye."

The Good Sheppard shows His flock that being in relationship with Him means bearing wrongs with love and forgiveness.

COFFEE HOUR FOR OCTOBER
