Stewardships - Who Do You Say That I Am?

When contemplating Jesus Christ, who is He to you personally? Reflecting upon our answer to this question and our individual relationship with Jesus holds great significance as we embrace the responsibility of stewardship. Let us take a moment this week to contemplate the significance of Jesus in our lives. What are we doing to nurture the Body of Christ? What gifts are we offering for the sake of building up the Church?

Posture during the Communion Rite. The assembly's standing posture during the entire Communion Rite reflects the rite's covenantal nature and the unity of God's people in this action. The communicant's "Amen" is a commitment to live Christ's paschal life and to be Christ for the world. The communicant's gesture of reaching out with the hands embodies the desire to receive God's gracious gift of salvation. When everyone has shared in Holy Communion, the assembly is invited to sit and/or kneel for while of "shared silence". Much like after Homily.

From the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM):

The assembly stands for the following parts of the Eucharist: the Introductory Rites; the Gospel procession and its proclamation; the Creed and the Prayer of the Faithful; the incensing of the people at the preparation of the gifts, the invitation to prayer and the Prayer over the Gifts; The Communion Rite (i.e., from the Lord's Prayer through Communion until all have received); and the Prayer after Communion and the Closing Rite. The General Instruction invites the assembly to stand for the Eucharistic Prayer, except for the Consecration. Maintaining the "laudable" practice of kneeling throughout the Eucharistic Prayer is also appropriate. The decision is the responsibility of the Conference of Bishops. • Standing during the sung acclamations allows the assembly to sing them properly and respects their intrinsic nature.

Congrats and Blessings... go out to David Lafferty and Tobi Kozakewich who celebrates 20 years of marriage during Sunday mass Aug. 9th We also extend congrats to Matthew and Lisa Todd, who celebrated their anniversary of marriage during the 10:30 mass, July 19... also announced where Oliver Diaz, server at 4:30 and 10:30 mass has been accepted as a candidate for Permanent Diaconate. Four-year course will start in September. We also offer our prayers and blessing to ALL the (now) 12 seminarians who will start their long journey toward priesthood... including our very own Daniel Cheung of our parish. Our very best from all the parishioners.

Second Reading: Romans 11:33-36: The vastness of God's wisdom and knowledge is incomprehensible. No one can fully understand His mind or advise Him. Everything originates from and exists for Him. Glory to Him eternally.
