PASTOR'S DESKTHE MOST HOLY TRINITY*Stewards Pray

“But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth...” (John 16:13)

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a Stewardship daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

A Bit of History (continues):

A landmark event in the early years of the parish was the installation of the altars under the design and supervision of a parishioner, Mr. Schwarzkogler. He had Wimberg marble shipped from Hallein, Austria for the main altar, weighing 2,300 pounds, and two side altars, weighing 800 pounds each. The marble floors were cream a colour. In all there were 15 tons of marble in the church sanctuary. The marble order cost $4,000 and it took 25 men from the parish to install the main altar on a Saturday afternoon, May 24, 1958. The distinctive sanctuary of this church took some time to think through. Mr. Schwarzkogler built large wooden sculptures of the Trinity: God the Father, Christ and the Holy Spirit, symbolized by a dove coming down to Earth, flanked on one side by St Augustine and on the other by his mother, St Monica. (Note: Mr. Schwarzkogler's work, commenced in 1956; the year after church was built.)

Confession leads to healing:

Confession is a vital part of our Christian life. It is how we acknowledge our shortcomings and wrongdoings, allowing us to seek true repentance. Without confession, we may unknowingly distance ourselves from God. We open ourselves to healing and forgiveness through the act of confession. It also opens the door to a deeper relationship with God. When we confess our sins, we experience His grace and love more profoundly. It is in admitting our faults that we learn humility and the importance of grace. Experiencing the action of letting go, letting God ... makes all the difference to a freer way of life and freedom.

The new Vision for the Archdiocese of Ottawa Cornwall:

Go out ... Go deep ... Go together will continue to unfold over the next while. Please check the Diocesan website for updates <https://ottawacornwall.ca/>. With the conviction that God takes the initiative in all things, we choose to trust fully in His grace and loving plans for the future of the Roman Catholic Church of Ottawa-Cornwall. Stay tuned into our interactive hub for the new Vision for our Church. We are called to be a missional church to go out ... making disciples, engaging people to discover and renew their faith.

AGM HIGHLIGHTS-JUNE 8, 2025

VISITORS/NEW FACES

The parish continues to see a number of visitors and new faces in attendance at Mass, particularly at our 8:30 a.m. weekday morning Masses (Mon. to Thurs.) and at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass. We welcome them and in the spirit of Pentecost, may the Lord empower to them be active members of the Parish.

WEEKDAY MASSES/ADORATION

Our weekday masses offer a service to the community especially when neighboring parishes do not offer a Mass on a particular day, or for people who prefer an earlier Mass option, for example people going to work.

VESPERS

Vespers have been offered for some time now at 7:00 p.m. Thursday evenings. Unfortunately, only a handful of people partake of this official prayer of the church.

It is very clear that 99% parishioners only partake of Sunday mass, yet there is very little response for what is happening during the week.

MUSIC MINISTRY

We are grateful to all those who continue to offer music ministry at our weekend Masses.

CHOIR

Please note: that the 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. choirs will break for the summer after the June 15th Mass.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all those who share their gifts and talents with the parish by volunteering for our various parish ministries. We are extremely grateful for your continued service and support to the parish.

GOODBYES

Please note that Edda, our parish administrator will be resigning on Sept 24, after 28 years of service and ministry here in the parish. We are now seeking a replacement

Fr Patrick's last day at the parish will be Sunday June 29th. We will have our "tributes" for him at that time.

Joe Cousineau will be 'stepping down' as chair of Parish Pastoral Council. We are very grateful for his six years of ministry and leadership at the parish.

FINANCE REPORT:

Ray Gervais, our Finance Council Chair was not here to deliver his financial report, but to highlight, we are working on a positive contract agreement with Myers Motors, next door, who for over 50 years have used our parking lot for their staff parking during the week.

Finances are going well ... average collection $2500--$3000.

strengthening faith.
