PASTOR'S DESK – JUNE 28th, 2026
The 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You have been with me..." John, Monday June 29th I will celebrate 42 years of priesthood. With all the lasting memories, photos and VHS video tape of an amazing Liturgy. That year we marked Friday June 29... Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus (from the second Friday after Pentecost). This also marks the Feast of Peter and Paul... so I have two feasts! It struck me with that special verse... "you have been with me" equated from Jesus' message in John's Gospel; that it offers special significance for soooo many folks have journeyed with me, prayed for me, offered masses... and most especially accompanied me along life's challenges and Blessings. This time I give special remembrance for my parents Edmund and Lois who brought me into this world and surrounded me with love and support. Let us gather to celebrate, to remember the good times, gift of Faith and JOY that comes with this Liturgy of Thanksgiving... Thank you for your prayers and support (Father Frank Scott).

Committee says no to MAID for mental illness

Canadian culture-of-life advocates now await a response from the Government; on a special joint parliamentary committee's (AMAD) advice to permanently halt the expansion of euthanasia for persons suffering solely from mental illness. There are some parliamentarians and senators who do not want any restrictions on euthanasia in Canada. Physicians, psychiatrists, professors, policy analysts, disability advocates, Indigenous advocates, family advocates and international experts were among the myriad of voices who offered expertise or personal accounts to the committee. MP seeks new offense for theft of religious artifacts

Having had the unbelievable experience in my previous parish St Martin de Porres (May 14, 2014) The ultimate theft was taking the Tabernacle out of the church...amongst other violations! no criminal charges. Recently Conservative MP Garnett Genuis seeks to amend the Criminal Code so that the theft of property with religious or cultural significance is treated by law enforcement with the same gravity as artifacts of high monetary worth. Bill C-290 essentially creates a separate criminal offence for the theft of culturally or religiously significant property. Regardless of its monetary value, such larceny would carry equivalent penalties as theft of property worth more than $5,000. (full report Catholic register)
