The 7th Sunday of Easter

Stewardship in Relationship

"Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said. . . 'I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do.'"
John 17:4 Christ fulfilled his vocation by finishing the work God gave him. An important part of our stewardship is the discernment of our role in God's plan. Stewardship is about fulfilling the unique tasks that God has given to each of us.

May for Mary

May has long been associated with new life and blossoming beauty, and for centuries the Church has dedicated this month to honoring Mary, the Mother of God. The practice of giving an entire month to Mary spans cultures and eras, forming one of the most tender and enduring devotions in Catholic life. The Church sets aside May to draw the faithful closer to Mary's virtues — her humility, purity, obedience, and maternal care. Honoring Mary in May is not merely a tradition but an invitation to imitate her openness to God and to seek her intercession with renewed love. Join us for Rosary before morning mass at 8 am (during Adoration) with Morning mass at 8:30 am.

Mass Explained

The Mass has two parts: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, which is an offering to the Father by Jesus and by us because we are also children of God. To take advantage of the great spiritual fruits God gives us through the Eucharistic celebration, we should know it, understand the gestures and symbols, and participate in it with reverence. We prepare to begin the Mass with the entrance procession. It is a song that unites all of us because people come to Mass from different places, cultures, ages and together sing with one voice, as the Body of Christ. We unite to celebrate one of the greatest gifts that Jesus left us: the Eucharist.

Daily Quote from the Early Church Fathers

There is no love without the Holy Spirit, by Augustine of Hippo, 354-430 A.D.

"How, then, did the apostles love, but in the Holy Spirit? And yet they are commanded to love him and keep his commandments before they have received him and, in fact, in order to receive him. And yet, without having that Spirit, they certainly could not love him and keep his commandments. We are therefore to understand that he who loves already has the Holy Spirit, and by what he has he becomes worthy of a fuller possession, that by having more he may love more. The disciples, therefore, already had that Holy Spirit whom the Lord promised, for without him they could not call him Lord.

SCRIPTURE READINGS – MAY. 17th

First Reading: Acts 1:12-14: After Jesus' ascension, the apostles returned to Jerusalem and gathered in an upper room with Mary and other women. They devoted themselves to prayer while waiting for the promised Holy Spirit to come.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 4:13-16: Christians should find joy in their sufferings, as it aligns them with Christ's own suffering and ultimately leads to sharing in His glory. Additionally, believers are encouraged to live unashamedly for Christ, even if it results in persecution.

Gospel: John 17:1-11: Jesus prays to the Father, asking for His own glorification so that He may glorify the Father, and also asking for the protection of His disciples as they continue His work in the world. Jesus speaks of the unity between Himself and the Father and prays for His disciples to be united in the same way.

Thank you for supporting families in our community.
