Stewardship - Living with a Holy Fear

While the thought of death and judgement can lead many to fear and trembling the Catechism instead calls us to cultivate a "holy fear" and a "blessed hope" (CCC 1041). St. Rose of Viterbo says that we should "live so as not to fear death. For those who live well in the world, death is not frightening but sweet and precious." As stewards let us strive to prepare for death by remembering that we will stand before the same Lord at judgement that we meet every day in prayer and at Mass.

Down memory lane.... History of St Augustine's

Back in the day... clergy at the church showed a youthful spirit. Folk songs were introduced at Saturday evening Masses in January of 1972. And a Rock Mass was held March 19; with a play performed by Merivale High school students instead of a homily! Rock music masses were held regularly beginning in 1974 at St Augustine, organized by Father Allan (remember when) "parents were not invited...they had a rock band in front of the altar. We were classed as the hippy parish at one time"'. You may recall when Fr Allan had the mass, there would be singing practice before mass... he would even be on the organ... expected parishioners to be singing. If you didn't, he might stop and look at you! On two occasions Masses at St Augustine were broadcast on CBC TV. On June 16, 1968, with 600 parishioners present Father Cyril presided at a "High mass" And on oct. 6, 1974, Fr Allan Charron officiated with a monitor for the overflow crowd in the parish hall.

Remembrance Day November 11th

On Remembrance Day, we pause to honour and remember all those who have served and sacrificed for the freedoms we enjoy today. We give thanks for their courage, pray for those who continue to serve, and remember all who have lost their lives in the pursuit of peace.

May God bless them and grant eternal rest to those who have fallen. May we always strive to be instruments of His peace.

Lest We Forget.
