Stewards Prayer

"Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells within you?"

1 CORINTHIANS 3:16

Remembering that Stewards are "temples of the Holy Spirit", should make our daily decision making relatively easy. If we truly want to imitate Jesus, then our words and actions should reflect the love, mercy, and forgiveness that flow from His Sacred Heart. Try it for one week. Try to remember that we temples of the Holy Spirit and see how it affects the way that you live.

Beyond the Hour on Sunday:

It has been several months now since mid-May that we gathered to hear our Archbishop launch a new initiative to energize the faithful in renewal and a deeper understanding of our Baptismal call to build the Christian community. The archbishop's message that evening — "Go Out, Go Deep, Go Together" — resonated powerfully throughout the hall. One participant remarked: These words, spoken with profound conviction and pastoral tenderness, invited all of us to renew our trust in God's providence and to walk boldly in faith as a Church. Many of us were moved to tears as he spoke about the need for courage, compassion, and communion in today's world — and reminded us that it is ultimately God who takes the initiative in all things. As I mentioned last week, there are various ways that we in our local community engage everyone to work together to make this a reality. Go out beyond the hour on Sunday: bring someone to church or to our Bible study, RCIA (adult formation on the Sacraments) or host an evening of "faith sharing" with your Pastor. Let us take to heart the message of the Gospel
- Fr. Frank Scott

REMEMBRANCE DAY NOVEMBER 11TH

Canadians pause today in silence to remember those who died in war and to pray for the victims of aggression and inhumanity throughout the world.

This is a day to pray for peace, to consider what we are doing as individuals, as a community and as a nation to bring God's peace into the world.

This is a day when a believing community should rededicate itself by prayer and action to the ideals Jesus gives us in the Beatitudes.
