PASTOR'S DESK

Persistent Stewardship

"...proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..." 2 TIMOTHY 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He never said that we would have an easy life. Rather, He called us to be faithful!

November: a time of remembrance

There will be a Mass on Saturday, Nov. 1st at 8:30 am, Solemnity of All Saints. Also, at weekend Masses we will remember in a special way all those who have lost a loved one this past year, had a funeral here and/or member of your family has died. Participants will be asked to come forward to light a special candle at foot of the altar and your loved one's name will be read out, as part of the Prayers of the Faithful.

Toward an understanding of Sunday Eucharist

As mentioned in homilies, as presiders, we would like to dedicate this coming year to offer an aspect of Sunday Eucharist during homily time. We have provided a teaching at each entrance, on various gestures and postures at Mass. Please note: there are various resources online which offer great teaching and insight into "why we do what we do" at Sunday Mass.

Some good reading

Pope Leo XIV released the first major document of his young pontificate, in which he called upon all the Christian faithful – especially Catholics – to “make their voices heard,” in decrying the sinful structures that contribute to poverty and make life for the poor even more miserable than it already is. Signed in the Vatican on October 4, Dilexi Te is formally known as an Apostolic Exhortation, begun by Pope Francis and dedicated to the broad subject of Christian duty to care for the poor.

Anne Rolfe, Margaret Heaslip, Maureen Funai, Lillian Bradley, Paulette Chennette, Marie Springhall, Paul O'Grady, John Leman, Maureen Clulee, Deacon Chris Moffat, Frances Grandbois, Richmond Guillermo, Ken Taylor, John Lebrun, Wanda Hartlin, Lynn Kealey, the seniors at the Ravines and at Stirling Park, those who are isolated, lonely and scared and those suffering from mental illness, Covid, and RSV.
