PASTOR'S DESK – October 25th, 2026
The 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Compassion Stewardship — "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart." (Matthew 22:37)

Jesus boils down all of the commandments into loving God with all our being and loving our neighbor as ourselves. St. Teresa of Calcutta beautifully says that for "love to be real, it must cost—it must hurt—it must empty us of self." Let us seek to constantly love God and our neighbor in our parish community by sacrificing our own desires for their good.

Down memory lane... History of the Parish

Music and Liturgy played a key role in the history and the building of parish life. Many workshops and understanding of the new liturgy and Vatican II played an important part. It was noted by previous pastor, "People at St Augustine's were a little bit more prepared for Vatican II, and result of Vatican II, than perhaps some other parishes because some of that groundwork had been done" You may note; High Masses were discontinued in June of 1964 and the first folks Mass was held in July of 1966 (remember when?) In 1965, the church held a re-enactment of the Jewish Passover ritual on Holy Thursday, with convert from Judaism, Father Goldstein, presiding. Back then people became more involved such as starting with the parish council; which had its first meeting May 6, 1970, On June 20 the parish council decided to allow female readers and commentators in the church. In many ways very innovative and open for change.

Mass Intentions

A Mass offered for a loved one is a beautiful way to pray for someone special, living or deceased. We have dates available over the coming weeks. The offering for a Mass Intention is $15.00, payable by cash or cheque. To reserve, contact Edith at the Parish Office. office@staugustineparish.ca 613-225-7388. God Bless.

Anne Rolfe, Margaret Heaslip, Brenda Gervais, Pat O'Neill, James Fraser, Richard Bowen, Marie Springhall, Paul O'Grady, John Leman, Deacon Chris Moffat, Frances Grandbois, the seniors at the Ravines and at Stirling Park, those who are isolated, lonely and those suffering from mental illness.
